Special Garden club meeting was held Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Stanley Partlow, to transact business which was postponed at the regular meet-

OWGL Show and Sale to Attract Increased Exhibits

More than twice as many wheat-fed animals, as were displayed at the 1949 show will be exhibited at this year's annual Oregon Wheat Growers League show and sale in The Dalles, June 5, 6 and 7, predicted Eugene Courtney, chairman of the operating board.

A survey indicates 60 head of stock will be shown by FFA youth, with the operation of this division of the show for the first time this year. About 300 head of livestock will be shown by 4-H club boys and girls, including 141 baby beeves.

About 250 young exhibitors, accompanied by parents and club and project leaders, are expected for the three-day event. Special entertainment will include a banquet for all groups at the Elks Temple the evening of June 6, with a fireworks display later from a Columbia river barge. A boat trip on the yacht, Frances, by courtesy of the Inland Navigation Company, is planned for the afternoon of June 7, with the auction sale that night, Courtney said.

Exhibitors will come from 11 eastern Oregon counties, including Wasco, Grant, Sherman, Wheeler, Morrow, Umatilla, Hood River, Deschutes, Crook, Baker and Gilliam.

Mrs. M. C. Plank of Salem is spending the week here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Osborne, and other relatives.

7500 Signatures Pledged Balanced Plan Campaign

SALEM, May 10 — Seven thousand five hundred petition signatures have been pledged to put the Balanced Representation Plan for reapportionment of the Oregon Legislature on the ballot at the November election, it was announced this week.

Speaking for the Nonpartisan Committee for Balanced Apportionment, Marshall Swearingen of Salem, said, "County committees have been organized in Baker, Union, Wallowa, Malheur and Hood River Counties. The committees are actively working on petitions and have pledged a total of 7500 signatures. The Balanced Plan is being well received in all sections of the state. People are beginning to realize the threat to Oregon voting power in the so called Population Plan."

"The state committee will continue its efforts and we expect to have county committees in operation in every county of the state by the end of May. We have received support from members of both political parties and all the major farm and business organizations. It is a big job to get almost 30,000 signatures, but we are confident the job can be done," Swearingen said.

ing for the silver tea. Mrs. Oscar Voelle was co-hostess.

Mildred Miller, student at ECKE, La Grande spent the week end at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Miller.

Mrs. Charles McDaniels of Reids Mill district arrived at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Allen Billings, Sunday and will remain for a two weeks visit.

At the county school budget election Monday, Boardman went strong for, with 100 for and 3 against.

Did you ever stop to think how many little things are permitted to become great troubles by simply thinking them over? But remember the mind is like the stomach—it is not how much you put into it but how much it digests. And the best thing to do when you make a mistake is to make it teach you something.
