

Girl Scout Troop No. 1 Holds Court Of Awards at Masonic Hall Monday

By RUTH F. PAYNE
 Girl Scout Troop number one held its court of awards in the Masonic hall Monday afternoon. The girls marched in doing a simple flag drill. This was followed by the saying of the girl scout promise and the singing of "Where'er You Make a Promise."

The candle ceremony was used to effectively illustrate the aims of scouting. Sally Palmer lit three tall tapers and explained that each stood for a part of their promise. Ten smaller candles representing the ten laws were lit by ten girls of the troop. They then sang "The Girl Scout Chant."

This was followed by the presentation of awards. Judy Thompson told how they won their game badge. Nancy Anderson told about the hostess badge; Sandra Lanham, the minstrel badge; Lynda Borman, the rambler badge; Barbara Warren, the housekeeper badge; Peggy Wightman, the garden flower badge; Adelia Anderson, the mammal badge; and Meredith Thompson the bird badge. Sally Palmer explained what she did to earn the interior decorator badge, and Jean Marie Graham told how she earned the horse-woman badge. Darlene Connor showed illustrations of all the awards the girls had received previously.

Individual girls and their awards are as follows: Adelia Anderson; minstrel, rambler, housekeeper, hostess, game, and mammal badges; Nancy Anderson; minstrel, rambler, housekeeper, hostess, game, bird, and garden flower badges; Lynda Borman; sewing, rambler, housekeeper, hostess, game, and garden flower badges; Darlene Connor; minstrel, rambler, housekeeper, hostess, game, and bird badges; Jean Marie Graham; minstrel, rambler, housekeeper, hostess, game, bird, and horse-woman badges; Mary Ruth Green; minstrel, rambler, housekeeper, hostess, game, and garden flower badges; Sandra Lanham; minstrel, rambler, housekeeper, and bird badges; Sally Palmer; minstrel, rambler, housekeeper, hostess, game, garden flower, and interior decorator badges; Alice Peterson; my troop, minstrel, rambler, housekeeper, and mammal badges; Judy Thompson; minstrel, rambler, housekeeper, hostess, game, and mammal badges; Meredith Thompson; minstrel, rambler, housekeeper, hostess, game, and bird badges; Kay Valentine; housekeeper badge; Peggy Wightman; minstrel, rambler, housekeeper, hostess, game, and garden flower badges; and Barbara Warren; sewing, housekeeper, hostess, game, mammal, and second class badges. Each of the girls also received a membership star to show that she had completed another year as a Scout.

The troop sang "Girl Scouts Together," then marched out. They were accompanied by Mrs. Raymond Ferguson, and Mary Ruth Green led the songs. A tea hour followed with Mrs. Harold Cohn pouring the punch and the girls serving cookies which they had baked. Mrs. James Thomson, Jr. was in charge of the dining room and kitchen. She was assisted by Mrs. Alena Anderson and Mrs. Elmer Palmer.

Invited guests for the afternoon were Mrs. Roger Anderson and her Brownie troop. Mrs. Keith Slayter and her Brownie troop, Mrs. Ida Farra and her Brownie troop, Mrs. Adele Hamman and her girl scout troop, mothers of the girls in all the troops, teachers of the members of troop one, Mrs. Harold Cohn, and Mrs. Frank Connor.

Mrs. Stephen Thompson and Mrs. Claude Graham have completed their fourth year as leaders of troop one and most of the members have belonged for this length of time. This troop is sponsored by the Masonic lodge. Miss Marylou Ferguson was the honoree at a miscellaneous show on Tuesday evening at the Blake home on S. Main street. Hostesses for the affair were Mrs. David Wilson, Mrs. Willard Blake, Mrs. William Labhart and Mrs. Henry Tetz. Mrs. Conley Lanham and Mrs. Gene Ferguson tied for high score in Bridge and in Canasta. Mrs. Floyd Adams and Mrs. Jesse Turner received high.

Tuesday evening, parents of pupils of the eighth grade entertained with a barn dance at the Parish house in honor of the class with the seventh grade students as guests. Mrs. M. R. Wightman, P.T.A. class mother, was chairman in charge of the event. Mrs. Linnie Loudon provided the music and square dances were called by Tress McClintock and Mrs. Lyngholm, seventh grade teacher. Mrs. Stephen Thompson was in charge of the entertainment and was assisted by Mr. and Mrs. McClintock. Hotdogs and punch were served by the mothers of the group. Sixty-two couples were present for the square dancing.

Mesdames Harley Anderson, W. O. Bayless, Harold Beckett and Carl Bergstrom motored to Long Creek Saturday to attend a reception honoring Mrs. Ruth Piequet who has been appointed Grand Ruth of the Grand Chapter OES of Oregon. Representatives of the order from all over the state were present for the occasion.

DELICIOUS COTTAGE CHEESE DESSERTS

"If I knew you were coming I'd have baked a cake" — so goes a current popular melody. Although the song is new, the idea behind the phrase is as old as that of hospitality itself.

Homemakers of yesterday and today have always liked to prepare something special in anticipation of a guest's arrival. As a result, cakes, cookies and luscious desserts are often associated with special company affairs perhaps because of the extra cost and added preparation time.

One such party cake, however, which will cost no more in money or time, is the ever-popular favorite—cheese cake! Cheesecake is enjoying renewed popularity—and today's husbands are finding it just as rich, creamy and delicious as grandfather did.

The secret of cheese cake is simple. Cottage cheese is responsible for its rich, creamy texture and tart-sweet flavor. Cottage cheese is one of those plentiful, delicious dairy foods which are so economical to use in planning daily food menus. Cottage cheese also makes delicious cookies, custards and pies and is famous as a salad standby with fresh spring fruits and vegetables.

Our cottage cheese recipe is an especially good one. It is a perfect dessert for a company served.

Mrs. Terrel Benge of the Social Ridge district was a business visitor in Heppner Tuesday afternoon.

Major Clayton Shaw has received an appointment to teach in ROTC at Oregon State college for a three year assignment and with Mrs. Shaw and children, Robbie and Steve, will arrive from Lawton, Oklahoma in about a month. Mrs. Shaw is the former Harriet Hager of Heppner.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Pierson and his mother, Mrs. Anna Pierson, spent Sunday in Hermiston visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pierson.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Payne, William Furlong, Gaylord Ingram and Michael Furlong motored to The Dalles Sunday to see Mr. Ingram's daughter, Dorothy Ellen who was there from Ontario for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Atustin and family.
