

Auxiliary at Ione Elects Officers at Meeting Last Week

Mrs. Victor Rietmann was elected president of the American Legion auxiliary at the last meeting, heading a group including Mrs. Ernest McCabe, first vice president; Mrs. Gordon White, second vice president; Mrs. Earl McCabe, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Pete Cannon, chaplain; Mrs. Robert DeSpain, sergeant-at-arms.

Saturday, May 27 will be Poppy Day and everyone is urged to wear a poppy in memory of the dead of the two world wars. The poppies have no price. The auxiliary asks all Americans to wear a poppy (not "buy a poppy") and to contribute what they can for the disabled veterans and the needy children of veterans. All American Legion auxiliary poppies are made by disabled war veterans, who are given gainful employment and valuable therapy through the poppy program.

A window was decorated at the Swanson store which consists of white crosses placed in V shape with a poppy tree and poppy poster in the background, green crepe paper is used for the grass, lattice work of red, white and blue streamers, and two flags. Those working were Mrs. Richard Lundell, chairman; Mrs. Ernest McCabe, Mrs. Walter Corley and Mrs. Pete Cannon.

The 7th and 8th grades had their class day Friday afternoon under the direction of their teacher, Mrs. Carl Linn, when the following program was given: introduction of the 8th grade class by the master of ceremonies, Jerry Bristow; two songs by the 7th and 8th grade; class history by Duane Baker; class will by Beverly Carey; class prophecy by Janet Howton; a farewell tribute to the 8th grade by the 7th grade, and numbers by the band. The 8th grade class includes Arthur and Roy Lindstrom, Tommy White, Janet Howton, Darlene Madden, Duane Baker, Beverly Carey, Herbert Peterson, Lee Palmer, Kenneth Brenner, Virginia Jensen, Helen Salter, Paul Barnett, Arlene McKissick and Jerry Bristow.
