

Mrs. G. McLouth Laid to Rest In Hermiston Monday

By Mrs. FLOSSIE COATS

Funeral services for Mrs. Gust McLouth were held at the Burns Funeral home in Hermiston Monday afternoon. Pallbearers from Boardman were Earl Downey, E. T. Messenger, Roy Ball, Frank Cole, and Martin Anderson. Mrs. Claud Coats and Mrs. Frank Marlow sang a request number, accompanied by Mrs. Hugh Brown. Mrs. McLouth came to Boardman with her husband and family 13 years ago where they resided until this March. Mrs. McLouth's health became very poor the past two years, getting so bad it was best they moved to Hermiston where she could be near the two daughters. Mrs. McLouth made many friends while residing here which was apparent by the number of folk who motored from here for the funeral.

Mrs. W. E. Garner and daughter, Mrs. Ed Skoubo and son, Mrs. Ike Murphy motored to Pendleton Friday.

Dedication of the ground for the 4-H building on the North Morrow County Fair grounds was held Sunday afternoon, under the direction of Mrs. Jamie Staicup. The program was a skit and songs by the 4-H club members. This dedication is in memoriam of Lynn Gillespie, 4-H club member who passed away two years ago. His father, Z. J. Gillespie, turned the first shovel of dirt for the foundation. The Rev. Chas. Hawley gave the closing prayer. Work is to begin immediately on the building, with plans for its completion in time for the fall fair.

The G.A.A. high school girls honored Miss Mary McIntosh, English teacher, with a handkerchief shower Thursday afternoon. Miss McIntosh will teach in the North Bend school next winter.

Mrs. Earl Briggs and Mrs. Fred Smith motored to Ordinance Friday for the "Armed Force Day," going through many of the buildings of importance.

Mrs. R. A. Fortner returned home Friday from Heppner where she spent several days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lucas. Faye Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Anderson returned from Longview, Wn. Friday where she spent the winter with her uncle and aunt Mr. and Mrs. Claud Magers.

Mrs. Nora Ransier who has been employed in Pendleton the past several weeks returned to her home here Sunday. Mrs. Ransier plans on a trip to California soon for a visit with her son and daughter-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Danny Ransier.

Frank Ackerman has returned to the St. Anthony hospital in Pendleton, where he is receiving further medical care.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cramer returned from Portland where they spent a week. Mr. Cramer going through the clinic while away.

Robert Parker returned home Sunday from Yakima where he was a week in the hospital following an operation. Mrs. Parker went after her husband.

Ladies aid missionary society were in the church basement Wednesday afternoon. Serving refreshments were Mrs. Charles Dillon, Mrs. Armin Rug, Mrs. Margaret Klitz and Mrs. Emma Delano.

Don't forget the 4-H basket social Saturday evening, May 27. A good program is promised—ladies bring a full basket.

Boardman school cannery will be open Saturday, May 27 at 10 a.m. for asparagus canning.

ELECTION FOOTPRINTS

Primary election results are screwball with whimsy.

They show a liberal republican running against a conservative democrat at the top of the ticket in the November 7 general election—Wayne Morse against Howard Latourette for the United States Senate.

They show a liberal democrat running against a conservative republican—State Senator Austin Flegal attempting to unseat republican Governor Douglas McKay.

Although there are more democrats than republicans registered in Oregon, some top ticket republican candidates received more nominating votes than the winning democrats for the same office.

The democrats did a better job in getting members of their party to register; the election shows, however, that the GOP did better in getting republicans to go to the polls and vote.

A Portland gamblers' election pool turned out to be a first grade bubble gum job. It gave odds on Lew Wallace to top Austin Flegal, odds on Robert F. Maguire over Walter Tooez for state supreme court position No. 3 and on Phil Dreyer over Carl Donough for the democratic congressional nomination in the 3rd district—all 100 per cent wrong. Could have been sucker bait for the betting fish at the general election.

Joe Dunne, who says he will enter the gubernatorial race as an independent, was third man in the three-cornered gubernatorial election in 1934 and was topped by both General Charles Martin, democrat, and Peter Zimmerman running as an independent.

NEXT LEGISLATURE

The chances are about 5 to 1 that the 1951 legislature will have a republican majority in both houses.

The republicans have nine members whose terms do not expire until 1952; two senators, Eugene Marsh of McMinnville and Howard Belton of Canby, who have no opposition; two senators Frederick Lampert and Douglas Yeater of Salem whose county has not sent a democrat to the senate for several decades are sure to be elected. This brings the sure-fire positions to 13, just three short of a majority. Expected to save the day for the republicans are consistent vote getters Senators Carl Engdahl and Rex Ellis, both of Pendleton, and Dean Walker of Polk county. There were ten democrats in the senate in 1949. It looks like there will be but eight in 1951.

The house will in all probability have a republican majority but will have more than the 11 democrats it had last session if the heavy democratic registration in Multnomah county go to the polls.

GOVERNOR MCKAY COMPLACENT

Election returns on Friday night did not worry Governor Douglas McKay.

After a dinner with friends, the governor drove home, retired at 10 p.m. and was in his executive offices at the capitol at 9 a.m. the next morning, attending to state business all day, including the dictation of more than a hundred letters.

NO SKIN GAME

Cougar hunters hold your fire. Stalkers of big cats who are attracted by the state's $50 bounty on cougar should first clear their prospects for cash with the state game commission.

Last winter Walt Ball, who hunts cougar in the Detroit Dam area got eight with a single shot 22 pistol, but has not been able to get the $400 he figures is due him.

When he collected the county bounty of $10 each the hides were marked by puching the cats' ears. The game commission says they should be marked by a special ink. Game officers are investigating the case.

DON'T LIKE HAWAII

A letter writing campaign to Oregon congressmen protesting approval of Hawaiian statehood is being considered by servicemen who were in the islands during the late war.

The proposal was sparked by the visit last week of the mayor of the city and county of Hawaii to Governor Douglas McKay when the visitor said, "Hawaii feels its statehood chances are so favorable that it already has scheduled a constitutional convention in anticipation of an affirmative congressional decision."

What the Americans cannot forget is the way the native gangs waylaid lone servicemen and beat them up. A former officer of the Navy recalls that at one time there were 80 beds in one Honolulu hospital occupied by sailors who had been maimed by native gangs.

Savings Bonds Drive Sparks Buying in State and County

The Portland branch of the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco has just released figures showing the sale of E Bonds in Oregon by county since the Independence Savings Bonds Drive got underway Monday, May 15. According to Mr. E. C. Sammons, state chairman, total sales in this state for the week were $599,137 or 9% of the state quota of $5,892,000.

Mr. Sammons said that the tour of the replica Liberty Bell, which is now in Southern Oregon, is arousing more interest than any single thing that has happened during the peacetime history of the selling of U. S. Savings Bonds to individuals. Since the Bell began its tour, it has been taken as rapidly as possible to the larger schools in the state and thousands of school children have seen it and have heard it ring.

County Chairman James H. Driscoll announced today that the sale of E Bonds in this county during the first week of the sales campaign amounted to $4,762, or 13% of the assigned quota of $35,000. Local volunteers are making every effort to go far beyond that figure. They are working on the theory that—"A thrifty community is a good place in which to live and do business."
