

Oregon in Twelfth Place in Nation On Sale of Bonds

According to E. C. Sammons, State Chairman of the Savings Bonds Division, reports just received from Washington, D. C., show that at the end of the first week of the Independence Savings Bonds Campaign Oregon was in the twelfth place in the nation.

Sales during the second week of the Drive amounted to $456,107, with figures including all E Bond sales reported by banks and postoffices to the Federal Reserve Bank in Portland, up to and including Saturday, May 27. This represented a slight drop from sales of the first week, but it is hoped and expected by volunteers all over the State that as the public becomes more aware of the advantages of personal thrift as the Drive progresses, there will be an increasing reaction in sales results.

Total sales May 15 through May 27 are $1,055,244 or 17% of the State's quota of $5,892,000.

Oregon's replica of the Liberty Bell will conclude its major showings before school children on June 2 in Portland. From that time on its travels will take it before adult groups in most Oregon cities where local celebrations of one type or another are taking place between now and July 4. The financial independence slogan shown on the sides of the Liberty Bell truck—"Save for Your Independence"—is being stressed in every appearance of the Bell after the showings before school children have been completed.

Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Forsythe left Monday morning on an extended trip to Story, Wyo., and Granville, Ohio, to visit their mothers. Mrs. Jack Forsythe and children accompanied them as far as Ashton, Idaho, where she will spend the month with her parents.

Former Resident Marries Montana Woman in Portland

In an afternoon ceremony at the Little Chapel of the Chimes in Portland last Sunday, Mrs. Elice Taylor of Helena, Montana, and L. E. Dick, formerly of Heppner, were united in marriage.

Mrs. Dick, who wore a beige suit and accessories with a corsage of tallisman rosebuds, was attended by her daughter, Mrs. Marion Hampton of Canby. Mrs. Hampton's suit was red, with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

L. E. Dick, Jr., of Heppner, was best man for his father. Following the ceremony, which was attended by relatives of the couple, a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. McDonald.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick plan a leisurely trip through the western states this summer, highlighted by attendance at the Shrine convention in Los Angeles later this month.

Going down from Heppner for the wedding and reception were Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Dick, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Kemp Dick.

Notice Of Wheat Allotments in '51 Received Locally

Wheat acreage allotments will be in effect for the 1951 wheat crop according to word received by L. L. Howton, county PMA chairman from the Department of Agriculture at Washington, D. C. The legislation under which wheat acreage allotments are established requires that they be proclaimed each year by the Secretary of Agriculture unless a national emergency exists.

The chairman explains that each year the national allotment is based on the estimated needs for the coming year after making allowance for the supply of wheat on hand on July 1, 1950.

Farmers on land on which no wheat was seeded for any of the years 1948, 1949, or 1950, may apply for a 1951 wheat acreage allotment. To be considered for an allotment on a new farm the farmer must apply in writing to his county PMA Committee by July 1.

The application must contain evidence that the land for which an allotment is requested is suitable for the production of wheat and that the operator will be largely dependent for his livelihood on his farming.

Definite information as to allotment determination will not be received in the county offices until after July 1, 1950.
