CoraBelle Nutting And James Noreen Married Saturday

From Prineville comes word of the marriage, Saturday afternoon, June 10, of Miss CoraBelle Nutting and James Noreen. Attendants in the garden wedding were Jane Noreen as matron of honor and William Seeks as groom's man, while Betty Smethurst of Lexington and Beverly Yocom of Heppner were bridesmaids.
 The bride and groom will make their home in Pullman where Mr. Noreen is a student in veterinary science at Washington State college.
 The bride is a graduate of Heppner high school. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Nutting, former residents here.
 Going from here to attend the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. Bert Kane and niece, Beverly Yocom, and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Smethurst and daughter Betty of Lexington.

Lexington Home Scene of Wedding Friday Evening

Mrs. Claudine Carver and Paul Warren were married Friday evening, June 9 in a quiet ceremony in the presence of a few friends at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Hunt in Lexington. Mrs. Hunt and Ervin Anderson attended the bride and groom, and Elder Cook performed the ceremony.
 The bride was gowned in a navy blue and white sheer with blue accessories.
 Mrs. Warren is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Drake and is employed in the office of the Heppner schools. Mr. Warren is also in the employ of School District No. 1.

After a trip to Salt Lake City and Yellowstone park they will return to Heppner to make their home.

HERE FROM MASSACHUSETTS

After an absence of 14 years, George Noble of New Bedford, Mass., is paying Heppner a visit this week. Noble spent 11 months here in the Civilian Conservation Corps camp and made numerous acquaintances in town, some of whom he has been able to renew in his short visit. He has been employed in the state hospital at New Bedford for several years. The visit here will end Monday and he will head east to spend the balance of his vacation before returning to work July 3.

Mr. and Mrs. Luke Bibby drove to Portland today where Bibby will participate in the state trapshoot this week-end.
