

Ronald Baker Wins Top Spot in 4-H Livestock Judging

Morrow County 4-H members returning from the Oregon Wheat Growers League 4-H Fat Stock Show and Sale held at The Dalles June 5, 6, and 7 brought with them their share of the honors, as well as good sale prices that go with this show and sale each year. The first contest of the show, the livestock judging contest where approximately 150 club members competed for best judge was won by Ronald Baker of Ione. Ronald scored 625 points out of a possible 700, winning this contest also in 1949. Third place was won by Janet Howton, Ione who was exhibiting for the first time at this show. Classes judged were two of fat hogs, two of fat lambs, and three of fat steers. Judging of all classes of livestock were completed on the second day of the show. Ronald Baker again showed his experience as a feeder by showing the champion Shorthorn steer, bred by Sherman-Perguson of Heppner. He was beat out in the selection of a Grand Champion of the show by Diane Christensen of Moro, who also showed the Grand Champion in 1949. In showmanship contests, Leiland McKinney, Ione was winner of the junior beef division showing his Shorthorn steer. He was included in the contest for champion beef showman but was beat by experienced Duane Eakin, Powell Butte, who has won several of these contests. In the senior sheep showmanship contest, Ronald Baker took first place. Morrow county club members took first in the herdman-ship contest and second in county group of five steers.

Prices were good with all 4-H members receiving premiums on their fat animals. Buyers from Morrow county were Henry Baker, Lloyd Howton, Ione and O. W. Cutsforth, Lexington, buying beef; E. M. Baker, Ione, and Krebs Bros, Cecil, buying lambs.

The Oddfellows at Morgan are remodeling the school house and making it into a community hall. The barn was sold to Gus Janssen who has moved it to his property at Ione.

Campfire Girls At Lexington Honor Parents at Dinner

By DELPHA JONES

The Ne-Top-Pew Campfire girls were hostesses at a mother and father banquet at the W. E. McMillan home Sunday afternoon at 4 p.m. The table was lovely with a lace cloth and center of floral sprays of white carnations and heliotrope. The table was set with matching crystal and place cards of small girls. The menu consisted of shrimp cocktail, baked ham, buttered potatoes, molded green salad, buttered peas, and pie and coffee, which was served in courses. The girls cooked and served the dinner. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Art Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Breeding, Mr. and Mrs. Millard Nolan, Mr. and Mrs. Truman Messenger, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. McMillan and Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Jones guardian of the girls. After the dinner several songs were sung, and there were piano solos by Deanna Steagall, Betty Messenger, and Joan Breeding.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hayes of Corvallis spent the week-end at the Earl Warner home, parents of Mrs. Hayes. Mr. Hayes returned to Corvallis Monday but his family will remain for an extended visit.

Mrs. Robert Davidson was hostess to a birthday party June 7 honoring her daughter Dora Sue's birthday. Ice cream and cake were served to 18 guests. Those from out of town attending were Peggy Applegate and Janice Martin. The Amicitia club met at the home of Mrs. Bernard Doherty with Mrs. Robert Davidson as co-hostess. Low was won by Betty Groves, high by Lavonne Bloodsworth, door prize by Gladys Cutsforth and traveling by Thelma Smethurst. Refreshments of jello, whip cream and cake and coffee were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Hunt have had as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Percy Connor and sons of The Dalles. Mrs. Connor is the former Elsie Tucker, sister of Mrs. Hunt and this is the first visit in quite a number of years.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Hunt have recently moved to Lexington from Heppner.

Miss Dona Barnett and Mrs. Trina Parker left Sunday for Portland where Miss Barnett will receive medical attention. They were taken down by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Marquardt.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Griffith spent Sunday in Spray visiting relatives, who were there from Idaho.

Mr. and Mrs. George Irvin are spending a few days in Roseburg. Mrs. C. C. Jones is keeping their small daughter, Trina Parker left Sunday for California on their vacation.

Miss Jean Griffith who has been in Spray with her grandmother, Nannetta Griffith, returned to her home Sunday.

The following girls left Tuesday morning for summer camp in Corvallis, at the 4-H club camp; Betty Lou Messenger, Glenna Griffith and Joan Breeding. They were accompanied by Mrs. Breeding.

Mr. and Mrs. Elza Vinson of Butter creek are staying at the Dan Way home for a few weeks visit.

Clifford Green, small son of Herman Green, was painfully injured Monday when the end of a car trailer fell on his head. He was taken to a Heppner physician.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Nichols have moved into the house across the creek recently sold them by Mr. and Mrs. V. Brown, who have moved to Heppner.

The Morrow County Grain-grower dinner which was served by the Three Links club in the IOOF hall Tuesday was well attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Feathers and family left Wednesday for Clackamas for a visit.

Mrs. Truman Messenger entertained the Three Links club at her home Thursday. This was President Mrs. Dan Way's birthday and she was pleasantly surprised with a cake decorated with candles. Refreshments of cake, salad, tea and coffee were served.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Vinson of Kimberly are visiting at the Oris Padberg home.

TWO RECEIVE DEGREES
Two students from Heppner received degrees from the University of Oregon on June 11. Bachelor of science degrees were received by Hugh McLaughlin, son of C. N. McLaughlin; and Robert Rannion, son of V. R. Rannion.
