

Troedsons Return From Three Weeks Visit in Sweden

Mr. and Mrs. Johan Troedson and son Carl returned home Thursday from a three week visit with relatives and friends in Sweden. They went both ways across the continent by United Air Lines and overseas by the Scandinavian airlines system. They enjoyed the famous Swedish smorgasbord which is served the passengers. The travel from Pendleton to Sweden was 25 hours flying time which was quite a contrast to the time it took Mr. and Mrs. Troedson to emigrate to America over half a century ago. They found weather conditions excellent, the climate favorable and the scenery beautiful. At this time the nights are not entirely dark, the sun setting at 9:15 p.m. and a twilight until 11 p.m., also twilight several hours before sunrise which is at 3:15 a.m. While in Sweden, Carl spent several days in the national capital, Stockholm, sightseeing and going through the museums which displayed articles as far back as the 16th century. A tour by boat through the city enables tourists to see the capitol. The city is composed of islands which are connected by 43 bridges. He went through King Gustav Adolf's palace, also the ancient palace which was built in the 17th century.
