boys and girls enjoyed the afternoon with him.

Friends gathered at the home of Mrs. Charles Anderegg Monday afternoon where they enjoyed a double birthday party honoring both Mrs. Anderegg and Mrs. Jack Mulligan. Present besides the ones mentioned were Mesdames Nick Falser, Ray Brown, Walter Wyss, Robert Wilson, Algy Taylor, Bill Earnhardt, Henry Gantenbein, Nathan Thorpe, and Henry Zivney.

A visitor in Heppner Wednesday was Mrs. Clara Kileup, representing the Volunteers of America, with which she has been associated for a number of years.

NEW MASSEY-HARRIS "26" AND "27" SELF-PROPELLED ARE THE EASIEST COMBINES TO OPERATE

★ Ease of operation, simplicity, convenience are just natural results of the common sense construction of the 12 foot "26" and 16 foot "27."
You finish a tough day of harvesting feeling relaxed and satisfied when you own a new Massey-Harris combine. You combine faster, easier... everything is right there before you—all controls at your fingertips. Gas tank is low for easy filling... Grain tank unloads in a jiffy... inspection panels provide fast adjustment and lubrication... extra large wheels take the jolt and jolts out of rough fields and give sure footed traction.

See the new "26" and "27" today... get the best for your farm. Don't forget to ask about the new combine principle—Balanced Separation.
