REA Co-Op Formed At Monument For Interior Country

By MILLIE WILSON
At last a real step toward the REA for Monument has been taken. Requisitions for Kinzua, Mitchell, Spray, and Ukiah have been closed. Monument has a part of the material on the ground and there is more on the way. This week some surveying in town was done. A primary line was established and part of the secondary. This is indeed good news for the people of this community and every one is ready to help the good work along.
Doyle Wayne McCauley of Wenatchee, Wash. was a houseguest of Mr. and Mrs. Haskell Hobby this week. McCauley and Hobby are cousins. McCauley returned to Mitchell Friday with Mrs. Hobby.
Mr. and Mrs. Homer Williams and daughters Joyce and Linda were overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Wilson Saturday night. They brought Jeannie and Deanna Williams home after they had spent two weeks visiting in Echo.
Mr. and Mrs. Leland Stewart have sold their lumber trucks to a man from Eugene. The Stewarts have no definite plans as to where they will settle or what kind of work they will take up. The people of Monument are sorry to lose the Stewarts as neighbors.

Mrs. Evelyn Banta "nee Harlow" of Nyssa and her twin daughter and son visited her mother, Mrs. Ida Slocum and other relatives the past week. She returned to her home Saturday.
Mrs. Lois Bleakman and daughters visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Musgrave of Mt. Vernon over the week-end. She also took her daughter Laura Lee to John Day to consult an eye specialist.
Lee Greg of Kimberly is a 4-H boy had the misfortune to lose his fat 4-H calf from his pen. The boys have been searching for several days but so far have been unable to locate the calf.

Evonne Stoneman returned to Monument Sunday from Lone Rock and Umatilla where she spent her vacation visiting relatives and friends.
Joan Roach expects to leave for La Grande about August 19. She will enroll at Eastern Oregon College of Education.

Kinzua's baseball team came to Monument Sunday to play the local team. The boys from Kinzua proved too much for the Monument team.
The women of Monument took their baseball team to Prairie City Sunday to play the Prairie women. They came home the victors.

Oatis Stubblefield has been quite ill at his home this week. At this writing he is improving satisfactorily.
Mr. and Mrs. Earl Barnard purchased a new butane stove from the Leland Stewarts.
Mr. and Mrs. Felix Johnson were greeting friends Sunday in Monument.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Musgrave and nephew Dale Saddler were in town Sunday afternoon.
Bill Reynolds was hurt in the woods Wednesday while falling timber with Bennie Carter for the Big Four Lumber company. A dead tree some distance from the tree they were falling fell and struck him on the head. Clayton Griggs brought him to the mill and Lindell Broadfoot rushed him to the hospital in Heppner.
