The selection of the Ione faculty has been completed with Henry Osibov, supt.; Russell De Bondt, athletic coach, biology, history; Alan Robertson, music, band and glee club; Mrs. Maurine Nelson, girls activities, phys. ed., health, English; Hubert Thoreson, commerce and chemistry; Frank Ellis, 7th and 8th grades and shop in high school; Mrs. Gladys Ely, 5th and 6th; Mrs. Alice Linn, 3rd and 4th; Miss Barbara Johnson, 1st and 2nd; Clifford McCabe, custodian of the building and Mrs. Etta Bristow and Mrs. Fred Buchanan in charge of lunch room. A teacher's workshop will be held Sept 7 and 8 and school will begin Sept. 11. There will be a full day of school and lunches will be served. Robert Rietmann, commander of the Ione post, James Barnett and Ernest McCabe left Wednesday to attend the American Legion convention at Grants Pass.

Mrs. Cleo Drake and daughters, Mrs. Eldon Tucker and Miss Delores Drake left last week for Portland and other points of interest for a vacation before school starts.

Fayne Ely is recovering from an injury he received when his car trunk door fell causing a scalp wound which necessitated five stitches.

Helmuth Hermann, Gene Rietmann and Alton Yarnell drove to Portland Wednesday of last week to hear Spike Jones' orchestra. Alton continued on to visit in Seattle and the other boys returned home Thursday.

Margaret Hubbard, 13 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Van Hubbard, is nursing a sprained knee, the result of a fall with her horse after the Pendleton Round-up parade. Margaret and Janet Howton were the Standard bearers for Ione's group of riders.

Mrs. Ann Smouse and daughter Shirlee of Heppner returned last week from a trip they made to South Bend, Indiana, coming home through California where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Paul Smouse in Pasadena.

Mrs. John Osteen (Thelma Forbes) of Oakdale Calif. is visiting her mother Mrs. Minnie Forbes. This is Mrs. Osteen's first visit since 1940 to her home town and she has been busy greeting old friends.

Miss Doris Amacher of Portland was a week-end guest of her girl-hood friend Mrs. Kenneth Smouse.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Haugen of Portland were guests of her mother Mrs. Fannie Griffith, when they spent a couple of days in Ione on their way to Cambridge, Mass. where Mr. Haugen will enter Harvard this fall.

Mrs. Warren Crutcher of Boring, Ore. spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Lindstrom.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Lundell and Pat left Friday to visit their son Harlan and family in Boise.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lindstrom and family are vacationing with relatives on Orcas Island in Puget Sound.

Bill Hubbard and Rodger Kincaid were reported badly cut and shaken up when the Hubbard pick-up left the road between Heppner and Lexington Saturday night.

Delbert Emmert lost some hay by fire Monday. The damage was caused by a spark which started a fire that burned up the hay chopper. The Ione fire engine, driven by Edmond Bristow arrived in time to avert more serious damage. It was reported that the bridge at Emerts collapsed.
