One Hundred Fifteen Guests Attend Teacher Reception Sponsored By P-TA

By RUTH FAYNE

"The Citizen Child Our Responsibility" was the theme of the teachers' reception held Thursday evening at St. Patrick's church under the sponsorship of the Parent-Teacher association. This was a potluck buffet supper with Rev. Francis McCormack as master of ceremonies. Harold Becket, school board member, gave the teachers' welcome and James Vanover, the response. Leonard Pate, superintendent, introduced the teachers, telling an anecdote about each one. Mrs. E. E. Gonty, P-TA president, presented a past-president pin to Rev. J. Palmer Sorlien who headed the organization last year. This was followed by an address by Henry Tetz, principal speaker of the evening, who elaborated upon the program theme. Mrs. Edwin Dick, membership chairman, spoke briefly on the aims and plans of her committee for enlarging the membership of the organization. A gift was presented to Mrs. Lucy Rodgers, retiring teacher, for her long service to the local schools. One hundred fifteen guests attended the dinner.

The Past Noble Grands club held its annual dinner and election of officers at a meeting Friday evening at the home of Mrs. F. E. Parker. Mrs. Clara B. Gertson was chosen president and Mrs. John Bergstrom was re-elected secretary-treasurer. The committee in charge of the dinner arrangements included Mesdames Pearl Devine, John Bergstrom, A. J. Chaffee and N. D. Bailey. Nineteen members and two guests were present.

Several members of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church motored to Echo Friday afternoon where they assisted with the organization of a sub-district convention of the society which is to be held in the early spring. Making the trip were Mrs. Cris Brown, president; Mrs. Carl McDaniel, Mrs. Carl Vincent, Mrs. Whitmer Wright, Miss Opal Briggs, Miss Ona Gilliam, Mrs. J. Osmin Hager, Mrs. Alex Green and Mrs. Armendous La Douceur.

Mrs. LaVerne Van Marter Jr. entertained the last of the week at a pink and blue shower complimenting Mrs. Robert Runnion Jr. Present were Mesdames Frank Connor, Ray Drake, Ray French, William Richards, Tad Miller, James McLaughlin, Paul Doherty, Frank Turner, Garnet Barratt, Alex Thompson, Oscar Borg, V. R. Runnion, Sam Turner, Sadie Sigsbee, Edna Turner and Gertrude Applegate. Shower games were played with Mrs. Applegate receiving the prize for one game and Mrs. McLaughlin first prize for the other game. Refreshments were served with Mrs. Thompson assisting about the rooms.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gammell motored to The Dalles the last of the week where she will remain for a time. He returned home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Smith, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Mahoney and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Kilkenny of Pendleton flew to Seattle during the week-end to attend the Washington-Minnesota football game.

Sunday guests of Miss Annie, David and Will Hynd were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hynd and Mrs. C. L. Lieuallen and daughter Suzanne of Pendleton. They were accompanied to Heppner by Mrs. M. L. Case who has been in Pendleton for the past several weeks visiting her brothers, Charles and Jack Hynd.

Mrs. Adella Duran has moved into the Smith house on Water street which was recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. William McCaleb Jr. Mrs. Duran has been living in Umatilla for the past several years.

Rev. and Mrs. Elvon L. Tull motored to Maryhill Monday to visit the museum and most especially to view an exhibit of paintings by the Rev. Fred Wissenbach formerly of Pendleton.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Justus had as their guests during the week-end, her sister, Mrs. B. L. Kays and son Phillip of Portland. They returned to their home Sunday.

Mrs. Fred Pointer of Redmond visited Sunday in Heppner with her brother, James Driscoll and family. The Pointers came over to Kimberley where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Batty for hunting.

Misses Leatha Smith and Janet Sprouls returned Monday from Prineville where they spent a week with Miss Smith's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hayes and daughter Christine were up from Arlington Monday to visit her mother, Mrs. Grace Nickerson.

Mrs. Guy Huston of Milton is here this week visiting her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Slocum.

Mrs. Sara McNamer and Mrs. Lucy Rodgers have as their guest this week Mrs. Agnes Wilcox of Portland.

Mrs. Otto East was over from Prineville during the week-end to visit her daughters, Mrs. Bud Lynch and Mrs. Lester Cox of

Lexington. Mrs. Harry Nelson and two daughters arrived Thursday for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Parker, who met them at The Dalles. Mr. Nelson came up Monday for several days hunting.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Sperry and daughter Nancy returned to their home in Portland Sunday after spending the week-end here with her mother, Mrs. Allen Johnston and Mr. Johnston.
