Subscribe Now-Gazette Times, $3.00 a Year

Friday The 13th Observed With Mill Fire at Monument

lucky and lucky for the Big 4
Lumber company. The exhaust exploded and set the mill on fire.

The siren gave the alarm The siren gave the alarm and years old went to consult a doctor soon every available man in last week. This was the first time town was at the fire. Owing to an efficient water pressure, the fire was soon under control but the was soon under control but the roof was badly burned.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Rhose and son Mitchie of Portland spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Forrest. Mr. Rhose enjoyed some hunting while here. Roy Munkers of The Dalles was in town Sunday. He brought a truck up to move his household goods which were stored at the Dubosch ranch.

Mrs. Rho Bleakman received word Sunday morning of the death of her mother's aunt, Mrs. Mollie Smith, at the home of her daughter in Portland. Funeral services were to be held in Hood River. Mrs. Smith was an aunt of Mrs. Daye Musgrave of Mt. Verton.

a doctor.

Claude Crouch of The Dalles was attending to business matters in Monument the fore part of the week.

Earl Sweek drove to Portland Tuesday to order material neces. sary to remodel the school's auditorium into two class rooms. He was accompanied by his wife and Mrs. Chance Wilson. They returned Saturday afternoon.

Bill White and Dutch Weisenfluh of John Day were greeting friends in Monument Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Rhose and son Mitchie of Portland trees in Monument the fore part of the week.

Earl Sweek drove to Portland Tuesday to order material neces. sary to remodel the school's auditorium into two class rooms. He was accompanied by his wife and Mrs. Chance Wilson. They returned Saturday afternoon.

Bill White and Dutch Weisenfluh of John Day were greeting friends in Monument Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hynd and daughter Carol of Cecil came to Monument Sunday.

Mrs. and Mrs. Herbert Hynd and daughter Carol of Cecil came to Monument Sunday.

Mrs. and Mrs. Herbert Hynd and daughter Carol of Cecil came to Monument Sunday.

Mrs. Daye Musgrave of Mt. Verton of the Westernoon and Mrs. Chance Wilson. They returned Saturday afternoon.

Bill White and Dutch Weisenfluh of John Day were greeting friends in Monument Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hynd and daughter Carol of Cecil came to Monument Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hynd and daughter Carol of Cecil came to Monument Sunday. Mrs. Dave Musgrave of Mt. Ver-

Clayton Sweek(who was inducted in the armed forces Tuesday of last week, was sent from day of last week, was sent from Eugene to Fort Riley, Kas.

George Gray who was ill and taken to a doctor last week is able to be on the job again. He is sawyer for the Big 4 Lumber brother, James Enright, in Penderon Thursday.

tors in the Monument school, has moved into her home in Monument. Formerly she lived in the Theron King ranch and drove to school.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Griggs and children left Friday for their former home in St. Louis, Mo. company.

Mrs. Patzer, one of the instruc.

Errett Mael and friends of The Dalles were in this vicinity dur-received a medical check-up. Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Water-house had as their guests over the week-end, his mother and her ing two weeks with husband, an dtwo sisters, Faith Mrs. Ethel Adams.

and Donna Lee Waterhouse. Margaret Elder returned to Mo. nument Saturday. Her daughter, Marjorie Hughes and son Jimmy brought her from Pendleton, re-turning home Sunday.

Mrs. Georgia Capon who is 83 years old went to consult a doctor

Hugh Johnson, salter on the Tamarac reserve, has moved back to town for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivory Jewel mo-tored to John Day one day last week where she received a medi-

Lexington Folks ling hunting season. He stopped long enough to greet some of his friends in Monument. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Settle return. ed home Friday from a week's stay in Portland where Mrs. Settle Learn Town Was Incorporated 190 Incorporated 1903

By Delpha Jones

The Lexington PT-A met at the auditorium Tuesday night with Mrs. Armin Wihlon presiding. A program consisted of accordion solos by Betty Messenger, a read. ing by Mike Winters, and a piano solo by Joann Breeding. Judge Garnet Barratt talked on the privilege of American citizens to vote. After a business meeting refreshments were served.

The Amicitia club met at the home of Mrs. Herman Green last week. High prize was won by Mrs. Maurice Groves and low by Mrs. Carl Schwab. Joe Clark, who makes his home with his daughter, Mrs. W. E. McMillan, is a patient at Pioneer Memorial hospital in Heppner.

The Rebekah lodge drill team is practicing for the convention at Hardman where they will put on the work when the state president visits.

Mrs. Herman Green and son Larry and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Van Winkle were Pendleton visitors one day last week.

At an executive board meet ing of the PT-A it was decided to sponsor a card party once a month for the benefit of the hot lunch fund.

Room mothers have been ap pointed and are as follows: Mrs Kenneth Palmer, primary room; Mrs. Ray Dolven, 3rd and 4th; Mrs. O. G. Breeding, 5th and 6th; Mrs. Millard Nolan, 7th and 8th, and Mrs. Balser and Mrs. A. F. Majeski for the high school.

Lexington Blue Birds gave their leader, Mrs. Robert Davidson, a surprise birthday party Saturday afternoon. This was a hanky sho. wer. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served, the cake having been made by her small daughter, Dora Sue.

John Runyan of the Indian mission at Toppenish, Wash. was renewing acquaintances in Lexington Sunday.

John L. (Bunk) McMillan and wife of Elko, Nev. were weekend guests at the W. E. McMillan ranch. Bunk is a brother of Ted McMillan and visited several relatives while here. Monday he went to Kelso Wash, to visit a sister, Mrs. Elmer Pomeroy.

Alex Hunt and son Ellwood are spending some time at Wheeler, Oregon.

Mrs. C. C. Jones gave a birthday party honoring her daughter Charlene's eighth birthday Tuesday after school. Games were played and paper hats were made. Those attending were Barbara Steagall, Carol Messenger, Clifford Green, Johnnie Wallace, Bobbie, Beverley and Dora Sue Davidson, Judy Darnielle and Vald Irvin.

The Three Links club met at the home of Mrs. Orris Padberg Thursday afternoon. It was de. cided to serve a hot dinner sandwich, salad, pie and coffee at the hall on election day.

Paul Doolittle and his brother-in-law, James Teeters of Port land and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rood of Elgin were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Doolittle.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Harrison motored to Condon Sunday to spend the day with relatives.

Mrs. John Roscoe and daugh-

Mrs. Norman Florence is conter of Kellogg, idano are spend- valescing at the home of her ing two weeks with her mother, sister in Portland following a major operation recently.

RALPH WARNER

Service man for the Hoover Vacuum Cleaner, will be at

Gilliam & Bisbee's Tues. October 24

All who want their Hoovers serviced, please bring them in on SATURDAY or MONDAY Or Call Main 333, and we will pick them up.

Gilliam & Bisbee

9,000 NEW CLASSROOMS 9,000 ADDITIONAL TEACHERS 230,000 NEW DESKS

-that's what Oregon schools must add in the next 10 years to take care of increased enrollment caused by the rising Oregon birth rate and new population. Oregon's children must be properly educated. Support the basic school fund increase.

Oregon's children need your help!

Humphreys Drug Co.

Vote against a return to... bootlegging, racketeering, lawlessness and other prohibition evils

Citizens 317 X No Committee Lee Studd, Jr. Secretary 301 Lumbermens Bldg. Portland 4. Oregon

Dependable Radio and Refrigeration Service

THE COST OF LIVING is up 68% for household electricity is down 40%!

RATE CUTS SINCE 1940 have meant TODAY'S BIGGEST BARGAINI since 1940. But PP&L's average price total net savings of nearly 18 million Residential electric rates here are less dollars to users of PP&L's electricity! than half of the national average.

Pacific Power & Light Company

1910 · Our 40th Anniversary Year · 1950