NORTH MORROW COUNTY 4-H ACHIEVEMENT PARTY

Achievement pins and cards were presented to 47 4-H club members from Boardman and Irri- gion communities Saturday night as part of the annual North Morrow Achievement party. Special awards were presented to those members doing outstanding work, while nine leaders were honored for 100 percent completion of clubs and six leaders as finishing their first year of leadership.

The party, beginning with pot luck supper at 7:30 p. m. was attended by approximately 100 persons, club members, their parents and younger brothers and sisters. The program opened with pledges to the U. S. flag and 4-H pledge. Nathan Thorpe, chairman of the North Morrow county 4-H council, welcomed the group while county agents N. C. Anderson and Maud Casswell presented awards and recognition. Mrs. H. O. Cluff, Irri- gion handled several numbers on the program.

Leaders recognized with certificate of achievement for 100 per cent completion of clubs were Mrs. Leroy Fussell, Mrs. C. W. Waldron, Mrs. Cecil Hamilton, Mrs. Oscar Veele, Nathan Thorpe, Ralph Skoubo, Boardman; and Mrs. Louis Shade and Mrs. Ida Slaughter, Irri- gion.

Winning county awards were: Safety program, Larry Thorpe; Poultry achievement, Delores Carlson, Sharon Fussell, Carol Hamilton; Dairy, Delores Carlson, Maxine Sicard; Garden, Marilyn Barham, Gracia Veele, Richard Barham; Oregon Wool Growers auxiliary sheep project, Nancy Hoadley; Demonstration contest (Safeway Stores) Carmen Wilson, Nancy Graybeal; Stalecup registered spotted Poland China gilt, Marilyn Barham; farm bureau essay contest, Fred Knight, first and Carmen Wilson second. The film, "4-H Headlines" was enjoyed by the group.

Arrangements are completed for the big achievement party for south Morrow county to be held Friday evening at the fair pavilion. This year's potluck supper will be served as a banquet beginning at 6:30 p. m. Awards and recognition will be given during the banquet with recreation to follow. Committees consisting of all 4-H leaders and a goodly number of parents are working hard making preparations for the event.

HELP RELIEVE MOUNTING LOCAL PROPERTY TAXES

State school support must be increased. At present, property owners are saddled with more than their share of the load. Equalize school support— reduce local property taxes.
