Choose Mayor and
New Town Council

The town of Lexington had the regular election in the Cit Hall Tuesday night at 8 p. m. with the following people being put in office: Mervin Leonard, mayor; Laverne Henderson, recorder; Herman Green, treasurer, and the following councilmen, Wilbur Steagall, Eldon Padberg, and Don Campbell.

Miss Dona Barnett has been on the sick list this week.

The Lexington Public school had installation of officers for the school patrol which was started last week at the school with directions coming from Captain Lansing's office at Salem. This was made possible by the P-TA and Lexington grange. The following boys were installed, with State patrolman William Labhart doing the job: Captain, George Hermann, with workers, Vern Nolan, Mike Winters, Paul Breeding, Donald Hunt and John Darnelle. At the same time the children and parents were fortunate to hear a few words from Judge Garnet Barrett and Sheriff Clarence Bauman. That afternoon the football letters were awarded to the following high school boys, John Edwards, Earl Miller, Eugene Sawyer, Ronald Fahl, David Buchanan, Asa Way and Bill Steagall.

The Three Links Club held a special meeting at the home of Mrs. Cecil Jones, Tuesday afternoon with seven members pres-
