ADD EXTRA DOLLARS TO YOUR HARVEST!

DEPEND ON A JOHN DEERE-KILLEFER CHISEL CULTIVATOR

Greater crop yields . . . extra profits . . . a larger harvest check—that's what you can expect when you break up shallow hardpan with a John Deere-Killefer Chisel Cultivator.

Working as deep as 15 inches, the sturdy John Deere-Killefer shatters the hardpan, permitting roots to get down deep below the seedbed to draw upon valuable plant foods and surplus water when needed most.

The John Deere-Killefer is available in the heavy-duty "V" Series and the extra-heavy-duty "G" Series . . . in sizes varying from 5 to 10 feet wide. Both are sturdily constructed . . . have plenty of clearance for doing excellent work in trashy field conditions . . . are available with mechanical lift or for use with hydraulic power through the remote cylinder.

Be sure to investigate the advantages of chiseling with a John Deere-Killefer. See us soon for complete details.
