

Mrs. Houck Weds Howard Cox In Klickitat Church

By DELPHA JONES
Mrs. Marjorie Houck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Woark Sr. became the bride last Thursday of Howard Cox of Klickitat, Wn. The wedding was solemnized in the Lutheran parsonage at Klickitat with immediate friends and relatives present. The bride was lovely in an iridescent aqua suit. The young couple visited last week-end at the home of her parents in Lexington.

Grange held its regular meeting Saturday with the election of Mrs. Ray Dolven to the chair of Master. Mrs. Dolven will replace Kenneth Peck who resigned. State deput Vern Lantz was there to give a short, but interesting talk. Also were present several visitors from Ione. It was decided to hold installation of grange officers in Ione Jan. 6. At this time it was also decided to have the grange Xmas party Saturday night with a children's exchange of gifts starting at 6 p. m. with a pot luck dinner.

The O. E. A. dinner was classed as quite a success last Monday night and was held at the grange hall. The dinner was a candlelight banquet served from beautifully decorated tables, fixed with centerpieces of holly, and red and green nut cups, red and green place cards with Santa adorning each one. The kitchen committee, working for the P. T. A. included Mrs. Adolf Majeske and Mrs. W. E. McMillan. The dining room committee was Mrs. Robert Davidson and Mrs. Cecil Jones, assisted by the following in the serving: Mrs. George Irvin, Mrs. Roy Martin, Mrs. George Graves and Mrs. O. W. Cutsforth. Also assisting in the kitchen were Mrs. Wilbur Steagall and Mrs. Armin Wihlon. There were 48 plates served with the following menu: Tomato juice cocktail, green pear salad, roast chicken with dressing, string beans, mashed potatoes and gravy, hot rolls, and apple pie with cheese, also relishes, cranberry sauce and olives. A short business meeting was held with Mrs. Partlow presiding after which they adjourned to the Lexington school house where Mrs. Rands' group gave parts of their Xmas program for entertainment, and they held an exchange of gifts. The three groups of Lexington

Campfire girls held their vesper service last Wednesday in the Christian church with the Rev. Sorlien of Heppner giving the Christmas message, and Louis Wetzell the prayers for the evening. There were several special numbers, and several pieces spoken by the Bluebirds. The following girls took part: Shirley Hunt, Patricia McMillan, Beverly and Phyllis Nojan, Joan Breeding, Donna Robinson, Betty Lou Messenger, Inez McFadden, Barbara Rands, Pat Steagall, Dianne Schwab, Sharon Cutsforth, Maur- een Groves, Donna Graves, and Eileen Breeding. The Bluebirds taking part were Beverly Davidson, Charlene Jones, Linda Van Winkle, Betty Dyerson, Judy and Betty Darnelle, Judy Wihlon, Dora Sue Davidson, Helen Leah Winters and Barbara Steagall.

Mrs. Don Pointer spent a few days last week in St. Anthony's hospital in Pendleton. Mrs. Bernard Doherty has been keeping the Pointer children for a few days. Mrs. K. K. Marshall is spending a few days at home from her work in the Lexington cafe. Mr. and Mrs. Marshall and daughter Mrs. Eugene Majeske were Pendleton visitors one day last week.

Mrs. Charlene Gray of Cove is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Goodell. The Lexington Garden club met at the home of Mrs. Leonard Munkers on Tuesday. After the business meeting lovely refreshments were served to 8 members. Mrs. Olive Swaggart has been taken to the home of her daughter Mrs. Wheeler, from St. Anthony's hospital in Pendleton where she had been ill for about a week.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Here's An "Expert" Example!

When our Main Street parking problem cropped up again, we announced a strict one-hour parking policy, and swore in extra deputies to enforce it.

We also sent over to the State Capitol for a traffic expert, to give us pointers. He turned out to be real helpful—spent a whole afternoon with us talking about zoning and such. And when he left the building he found a ticket on his car for overtime parking!

Could have gotten sore, I guess—or asked us to "fix" the ticket. But instead, he insisted on going over to the Sheriff's Office and paying his fine.

From where I sit, it's good to know people, like that young fellow, who refuse to be treated any different than anyone else. City people and farmers—those of us who prefer cider and those who'd rather have a cool glass of temperate beer—we're all entitled to the same privileges. That is, so long as what we do doesn't conflict with the law of the land.
