

Church Scene Of Wedding Ceremony At Lone Friday

By ECHO PALMATEER
Miss Dolores Margaret Madden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon L. Madden, became the bride of James R. Barnett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Barnett, at an 8 o'clock candlelight ceremony performed by Rev. A. Shirley in the Lone Cooperative church Friday evening, January 12. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white dress. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a seed pearl coronet. She carried a white Bible with an orchid and satin streamers. Miss Darlene Madden, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor. She wore a pink dress with headdress to match and carried pink carnations. Miss Wilma Sanders and Miss Mary Jepsen were bridesmaids. Their dresses were pastel shades and they carried nosegays of pink and white flowers. Thelma Jean Sanders was flower girl. She wore a white dress and carried a pink nosegay. Leslie Madden, brother of the bride was the ring bearer. Ernest McCabe was best man and ushers were Alton Yarnell, Elmer Holtz and Joel and David Barnett. The candlelighters were Elise Bauernefeld and Leeta Linn. They wore pastel formal.

Dan Falette of Hermiston sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because", accompanied by Mrs. Mel Falette who also played the wedding marches. The church was decorated with "mums" and roses.

The mother of the bride wore a brown dress with aqua accessories, and the mother of the groom wore navy blue with matching accessories. Each wore a corsage of roses. A reception at the Legion hall followed the wedding. Miss Wilma Dalzell had charge of the guest book. After the bride and groom cut the first piece of cake, Miss Virginia Jepsen and Miss Wilma Dalzell served. Miss Jane Seehafer and Miss Margaret Hubbard presided at the punch bowl and Miss Fern Jones and Miss Joan Reininger were at the gift table. Mrs. Vernon Aune, sister of the groom, assisted with the reception.

The bride's going away suit was navy blue with gray accessories. After a short honeymoon they will make their home in Lone. Mr. Barnett, a naval reserve, will leave for the service on March 6. Mrs. Barnett is a student in Lone high school.

Guests coming from a distance to the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nord of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Peiffer and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Leosis of Walla Walla; Mrs. Vernon Aune, Seattle; Mr. and Mrs. David Barnett of Pendleton; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Kerz, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Falette Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Dan Falette Jr. and Mrs. Mel Falette, Hermiston.

A second county wide defense meeting was held at the Legion hall Jan. 9 with Bill Davis of Heppner conducting the meeting. Mayor R. B. Rands of Boardman gave a report on housing, shelter and other facilities in Boardman that would be available in case of disaster.

Bob Graybill of Heppner showed a map locating bulldozers, etc., in the county. Mrs. Pete Cannon has been appointed as chief aircraft observer of Lone and will be assisted by 24 or more volunteers. An observation post will be selected soon.

Mr. Davis stated that it was very important that everyone have his blood typed and the type tattooed under his arm in case they need or would have to give a transfusion. C. J. D. Bauman plans to conduct first aid class here soon. The purpose of these defense meetings is to work out actual plans in case of a disaster and to get the people of each community to realize that everyone has a job to do. In case of evacuation the people of Lone would be on their own in taking care of refugees.

The cataloging and locating of trucks, airplanes, motorcycles, jeeps, shelters bedding, clothing, food, gasoline storage are very necessary. Local meetings would help to keep up the interest. Henry Osibov is director of the administration department; Ernest McCabe, the service department; Clifford McCabe of the aid and welfare. Registered nurses will have charge of the medical department. The next meeting will be at Lexington Feb. 13.
