

Annual Meeting Of S. C. District To Be Held at Boardman

By Mrs. FLOSSIE COATS
The annual Soil Conservation meeting will be held in Boardman Friday, January 26, an all day meeting beginning at 10:00 a. m. Afternoon speakers will be Ralston Hurlbutt, field agronomist for the Pullman, Wash., grass nursery of the U. S. Soil Conservation service. Also scheduled to speak is Melvin Haygood, irrigation specialist from Oregon State college. Other features will be a movie and slides on land leveling and ditch structure, by Mr. Louis Parton, supervisor.

Thursday afternoon, January 18, a soil conservation meeting was held at the home of Arnold Hoffman. Present were Nels Anderson, county extension agent, Heppner; supervisor Louis Parton, Stanfield, Clyde Robinson, Bill Forthman, Sam Davis and Mr. Hoffman. Anderson explained how soil and PMA work together. Mrs. Hoffman served refreshments.

Mrs. Marion Hill has returned to her work as operator at Messner, after several weeks vacation spent at her home in Telocast.

Mrs. O. H. Bengston and little daughter Hilda, who visited here two weeks with Mrs. Bengston's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bengte, left this morning for their home in Medford. The Gazette Times mentioned last week that Mrs. Bengston's husband is a member of the legislature. That was a misstatement. He was a member of the lower house during the 1949 session and sought the nomination in 1950 for the senate but was defeated.

Mrs. Jack Mulligan has returned home from the St. Anthony's hospital in Pendleton where she has been a patient the past week.

Ladies Aid Silver Tea met at the home of Mrs. Earl Briggs Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Wm. Nickerson assisting as co-hostess. After the regular business the ladies served refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Tannehill and daughters were guests for a few days at the home of Tannehill's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Tannehill. Donald has been transferred from the dispatcher's office in Portland to LaGrande. Mrs. Tannehill and daughters are remaining in Boardman until the household furniture is moved to LaGrande.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Ferguson motored to Heppner Wednesday, spent the week end in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hayes with their sons-in-law and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Ballino, and Mr. and Mrs. W. Beall and daughter Patty, Jefferson Hayes and Mrs. Robert Harwood were in charge of the grocery store during their absence.

Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Macomber motored to Pendleton Saturday and were guests of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Petseys.

Rev. Morton of the Presbyterian Church, Stanfield held service church Sunday. The Misses Ices in the Boardman Community Wanda Needles and Jean Scott motored to Stanfield, conducting the services there.

Ray Gronquist has leased the Hancock service station, has taken possession, and is now open for business. For a short time Gronquist will also keep the Phillips station in operation.

Mrs. Kaharine Heck left for her home in Seattle Sunday after staying two weeks at the home of her mother, Mrs. Eva Warner.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gillespie and daughter Billie of Othello, Wash., were week end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Zeal Gillespie. The two boys are brothers.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Dewesse of Stayton arrived Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lea Root and will remain for an indefinite stay. The two ladies are sisters. Sunday the Dewesses and Roots were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Macomber in Arlington.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Miller motored to La Grande Friday to visit their daughter, Miss Mildred Miller, who had undergone a tonsillectomy Friday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Miller returned home Saturday evening, at which time Miss Miller was doing nicely.

Allen Billings who has been a student at Oregon State the past term returned hmae Saturday and will remain for a time.

Boardman basketball team defeated the Irrigon team on the home floor Friday evening with a score of 60-29. Stanley Shattuck was high point man with 20. In the preliminary game the Boardman graders won from the Irrigon graders with a score of 23-17.

The regular home extension meeting was held in Boardman Monday, Jan. 15. Subject was Innerspring Cushion repair. A preliminary meeting for upholstery was held Jan. 19. These meetings were held in the grange hall and Mrs. Maude Caswell, home extension agent, was leader. The next regular meeting will be Feb. 19. Subject will be lamp shades. The upholstery workshop will also be held in February, date to be announced later.

Four Generations

Following a bountiful New Years dinner at the E. R. Settles home, the above group assembled in the yard to have a picture taken. It was one of those occasions that are not extremely rare but which happen only occasionally, for there were four generations represented. First in line is

John L. Padberg. He is holding Archie Padberg III, his great grandson. Next in line is Archie Padberg Sr. and his son, Archie Junior. Guests at the New Years dinner included Lola and Juanita Padberg, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Padberg Jr. and son of Monmouth, Archie Padberg Sr. and the Settles family.

Windstorm Halts Monument School For Day - No Lights

By MILLIE WILSON

Mrs. Emily D. Miller, publicity chairman of the American Legion auxiliary, Monument Unit No. 148, reports that the Disabled War Veterans have begun making poppies which the people of America will wear in honor of the nation's war dead on Poppy Day next May, is being started by the American Legion auxiliary in veterans hospitals in many parts of the country. Poppy making will give profitable and beneficial employment to thousands of disabled veterans during the winter and spring months. More than 30,000,000 of the little red memorial flowers are expected to be made for the Auxiliary.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Mellor are the proud parents of a baby boy born January 15. The young man tipped the scales at nine pounds. He has been named Marcus Joe. Mrs. Mellor and the baby returned home from the hospital on Sunday. This is the Mellors' third child. Besides the baby boy they have two daughters.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Gates and Clarence Holmes returned last Sunday from a trip to Medford.

Vernon Bell of Heppner, a grandson of Mrs. Jessie Batty, enrolled in the Monument high school last week. He will stay with his uncle, Kenneth Batty.

On account of the hard wind last Sunday night a fuse was blown in the electric circuit to the school house. Therefore on Monday morning school had to be closed as there were no lights or water. McLaughlin took advantage of the holiday and took Mrs. McLaughlin to consult a doctor in John Day. Due to a severe cold, Mrs. McLaughlin was forced to miss two days of school last week.

The local band, the Rimrock Serenaders, played for the stock raisers' dance in Heppner on January 13.

Mrs. Stanley Boyer and Mrs. Joe Simas were business visitors in John Day one day last week.

The Hudspeth Lumber Company, Inc. called Emory Moore to John Day last Monday to attend to matters of business.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Gilman of Top were in town from their ranch last Wednesday. They visited relatives and did some shopping while here.

Those enjoying a birthday dinner with Mrs. Daisy Simas were Mr. and Mrs. Rex Sweek, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Enright, Mr. and Mrs. Ned Sweek, Mr. and Mrs. Junior Simas, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Lesley, Mrs. Anna Lesley and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cork. The dinner was Sunday, January 21.

Mrs. Anna Lesley and Mrs. Lora Shank both received letters from W. E. or Bill White last week. Bill is now living with his niece at McCloud, Calif. He wrote that there was 12 inches of snow there. Better come back to Grant county, Bill, where the ground has no snow.

Last Thursday Mrs. Helen Brown and Mrs. Lydia Capon entertained the ladies of the M. M. club at the grange hall. There were 16 present. After a short business meeting a bunco game was enjoyed. The writer did not learn the names of the ones winning of pie, coffee, tea and cheese snacks were served by the hostesses. At the next meeting which will be held at the home of Mrs. Iffie McKinney

WILL FIRE Wipe You Out?

Home values are much higher than a few years ago—the value of both building and contents should be insured to AT LEAST 80% for safety. Broad coverage is recommended.

Insure with

Turner Van Marter Company

Lady, Take It Easy With FRIGIDAIRE!

Why work harder than you have to? Let FRIGIDAIRE appliances make housework a pleasure all week long.

- Easy-to-operate automatic washers.
- Roomy, easy-to-clean refrigerators.
- Efficient electric ranges.
- Spacious Deep Freezes.

FRIGIDAIRE

Heppner Appliance Company

with Anna Lesley as co-hostess, it is hoped the quilt which the ladies have been working on can be put together so the quilting can be started.

Jack Forrest will leave Monday to join the armed forces. A group of young people gathered at the grange hall Sunday evening to give him a farewell party.

Johnnie Stussie of Long Creek was in town Sunday visiting with friends.

Mrs. Dempsey Boyer was operated on at the St. Vincent's hospital in Portland last week. At last reports she was getting along as well as could be expected.

Mrs. Mead Gilman was called to Mitchell last Friday to attend the funeral services for her uncle, Al Foss. She was accompanied by her husband, Mr. Foss was 84 years old at the time of his passing and had lived at Mitchell since he was 21 years old. Mr. and Mrs. Gilman remained in Mitchell until Monday.

Maynard Hamilton left Tuesday for The Dalles where he will receive medical aid. He went by way of Heppner. Mr. Hamilton expects to visit in Ashland and Nyssa before returning home.

Clarence Youmans of John Day came Tuesday to help Chet Brown make out slash reports and also to report on logging operations in this area.

Raymond Hooker is now logging in the Prairie City area. His family will remain here where the children are in school.

Mr. and Mrs. Delmar Settle and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Lesley attended the show in Long Creek Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Martin and Miss Virginia Roach of Long Creek attended the Gay Ninety dance sponsored by the American Legion auxiliary Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Junior Simas moved into their new home Saturday. They have been living in the Wilson apartments.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gassner were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Barnard on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Tunis Round and daughter Ireta Ann of Long Creek and Dee Ann Johns of John Day were overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Stirritt and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Shank.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Johns and Tom Shanks were overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Stubblefield.

Those winning prizes for their costumes at the Gay Ninety dance were Mr. and Mrs. Mead Gilman, Mrs. Ivan Enright and daughter Patty, Henry Cupper and son Hankie.

PLACE YOUR ORDER NOW FOR A NEW CHEVROLET

KEEP YOUR PRESENT CAR IN GOOD REPAIR UNTIL YOUR NEW CAR IS DELIVERED.

Our service department is staffed with factory-trained mechanics and necessary tools, parts and equipment to render you fast, efficient service at reasonable cost.

Talk It Over With Us Before You Deal

Before you trade in your present car or make any deal, talk it over with us. We are anxious to help you get a new Chevrolet as soon as possible and welcome your inquiries.

Where friend meets friend. CHEVROLET

Hodge Chevrolet Company

Sealy TURNS BACK THE CLOCK to Record-Breaking Low Price!

Sealy 70th ANNIVERSARY

Sale! $44 MATCHING BOX SPRING $44

Sealy BRINGS YOU YOUR ONCE-A-YEAR OPPORTUNITY TO SAVE SPECTACULARLY!

Check these features you'd expect to find on mattresses selling for $49.50 to $59.50!

- DECORATOR-DESIGNED DAMASK COVER
- BODY-BALANCED INNERSPRING UNIT
- EXCLUSIVE SEALY INSULATOR CONSTRUCTION
- PRE-BUILT BORDERS TO PREVENT SAGGING
- "HANDI-GRIP" HANDLES FOR EASY TURNING
- 8 OVER-SIZE VENTILATORS

Sealy's great "Turn-Back-the-Clock" Sale brings you the Dollar-Savings Time of your life with this once-a-year selling of genuine Sealy Innerspring Mattresses! At this sensational Sealy 70th Anniversary Sale Price you can afford superior Sealy Innerspring Mattresses for your whole family! See these superb Sealys now!

Case Furniture Co.

DANCE

January 27

IONE American Legion Hall
Benefit For
IONE SCHOOL BAND UNIFORMS

Music by
BUD ORTON

Admission $1.25
Tax Included
SUPPER SERVED

The Courteous and Skilled Driver Always:

- Gives correct arm signals for lane changes, turns and stops.
- Obeys speed limits
- Stops completely at stop signs
- Drives in and turns from the proper lane
- Observes passing regulations and no-passing zones
- Yields right-of-way and observes crosswalks for pedestrians
- Stops when approaching standing school buses until safe to proceed
- Exercises special caution at railway-grade crossings
- Refuses to drive after drinking
- Drives defensively, anticipating what others may do.

-- Be As Courteous A Driver as You Think You Are --

This advertisement sponsored by the Soroptimist Club of Heppner in the interest of safer driving in town and on the highways.