

Monument District Being Organized For Civil Defense

By MILLIE WILSON
Dane Broadfoot, leader of the civilian defense committee of the North Fork precinct, was accompanied by Mr. Vernon Tuesday evening by Mead Gilman, Chet Brown, Henry Cupper, and Rho Bleakman, to meet at the home of Bob Damon, county defense coordinator to get all available information on what is expected of this district in respect to the civilian defense effort. Our Defense Leader will first ask for an accurate housing survey to determine the number of evacuees that could be accommodated on a permanent or emergency basis by each householder. Second he will appoint an auxiliary police force, third a first aid class will be established, fourth an accurate survey of all heavy equipment will be made and fifth, information on establishing a ground observation post.

Captain Charles F. Beattie Jr., state supervisor ground observer corps, of Portland, interviewed Mead Gilman last week. Available instructions concerning the establishing of an observation post in this district are expected to be received by Mr. Gilman this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Chet Brown were attending to matters of business in Heppner on Saturday.

Bill Settle was a business visitor in John Day last Monday. He was accompanied home by Mrs. Iffie Stewart and Mrs. Fay Davis. Mrs. Stewart and Mrs. Davis visited Mr. and Mrs. George Stritt and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Shank, also Mr. and Mrs. Henry Durst.

A team ran away with Mrs. Joan Morgan Friday. She finally got them stopped but injured her foot in doing so.

Norman DuBoch left last week to enlist in the armed services.

His father accompanied him to the point of induction.

On the 31st of December, 1950 Miss Marie Laurence and Earnest Bronson were united in marriage in Molalla. They will make their home in Oakridge where Mr. Bronson has employment. Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Round of Monument attended the wedding. Mr. Bronson and Mrs. Round are brother and sister. Mr. Bronson is a graduate of Monument high and has many friends here.

Thomas McLaughlin, principal of Monument high school drove to Pendleton to consult a doctor one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Patzer chaperoned the grade school boys and girls on the school bus Friday when they went to Seneca to play volleyball and basketball with the Seneca school. Both games were lost to the Seneca teams.

Mrs. Ed Enright received word last Tuesday that her mother, Mrs. Mary Rhinehart of Pilot Rock was quite ill. She and her son Ivan left immediately for Pilot Rock.

Mrs. Millie Wilson received a letter from Mrs. Nora Boyer who is in the St. Vincent hospital. She wishes to tell all her friends how much she has enjoyed and appreciates the letters and cards her friends have sent to her while she has been there. She hopes to leave the hospital and go to a hotel before long.

George Stritt took Mrs. Iffie Stewart and Mrs. Fay Davis to their home in John Day on Thursday and returned Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Delmar Settle and Mrs. Bill Settle drove to John Day Friday. Mrs. Delmar Settle had an appointment with her dentist. Mrs. Bill Settle was attending to matters of business.

Mrs. Clara Strecker and Lois Hill were hostesses at a card party Saturday evening, honoring Mrs. Lydia Capon on her birthday. There were three tables playing. Lois Hill won first prize and Lydia Capon won second.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cork had as their dinner guests Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Roach and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cork.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Shockley of Portland are the proud parents of a baby daughter born January 9. Mrs. Shockley will be remembered as Myrtle Cork. The maternal grandparents of the young lady are Mr. and Mrs. Owen Cork.

Mr. and Mrs. Spike Miller entertained 18 little folk Saturday in honor of their small son's birthday. Games were played and refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hill and children and Mrs. Doris Capon were in John Day Friday to take little George Charles to consult a doctor about a badly cut lip. The little fellow fell while playing and struck his lip on a bucket.

A household bridal shower complimenting Mrs. Georgia May Settle was held Sunday afternoon in the grange hall in Monument. Mrs. Settle received many nice gifts. She and her husband are now residing in one of the Wilson apartments. Mrs. Daisy Simas, Mrs. Delcie Sweet, Mrs. Helen Brown and Mrs. Millie Wilson were the hostesses. Refreshments of cake and coffee were served.

A civilian defense meeting was held in the gymnasium at 2 o'clock Sunday. This meeting was called by the leader, Dane Broadfoot, to explain and tell people what they should do in case of an emergency; also to tell them of what the emergency might consist.

The Adult Bible class of the Church of Christ held its monthly meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Doolittle Monday evening. There were 30 present and after the business meeting a social hour was enjoyed. It was reported that the Crusaders class is sanding the church basement floor and that part of the space is being fitted up for a game room.

An amazing brand new electronic invention that permits you to hear the sounds you want to hear and prevents irritating noises will be shown and demonstrated in Heppner Thursday, February 1, from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m. at the Heppner Hotel by John Gardner, Maico trained hearing technician from Shaw Surgical Company, Portland.

You will hear distinctly what is said at home, at business, in church, in the movies—in fact, everywhere. The Maico tiny "Top Secret" hearing aid brings you—besides the revolutionary invention which no other hearing aid has marvelous sensitivity, much greater clarity and NO BUTTON NEED SHOW IN THE EAR! No one will ever guess you wear a hearing aid. So, even though you now wear an aid, you owe it to yourself to read the valuable booklet, "TOP SECRET" which will be given to you absolutely FREE. If you have any trouble in hearing distinctly, or if your present aid bothers you, with distracting noises, "TOP SECRET" can bring you, or someone close to you, new comfort and happiness.

Mr. Gardner announced that while in the Heppner area, he will gladly make home demonstrations by appointment in addition to being available at the Heppner Hotel from 10 a. m. until 6 p. m. Thursday, February 1. (Paid Adv.)
