Enterprise Thursday by the illness of her mother who was to undergo a serious operation Friday morning. Mr. Walker and son Dickie motored to Enterprise Friday and remained over the week-end.

Fire destroyed the small house on the Gerking place, formerly the Ransier farm south of town Friday evening. Raymond Harries who was living in the house had just returned from Irrigon where he had taken Mrs. Harries and baby, building up a fire in the kitchen range, which apparently became overheated causing the fire. The house burned so rapidly Mr. Harries was unable to save any clothing or furniture.

Mr. and Mrs. Nate Macomber motored to Pendleton Saturday afternoon.

Wayne Conyers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Conyers, and who is in the U. S. army stationed at Fort Lewis, spent the week-end at his home here.

Mrs. Bill Califf, nee Lenora Earwood, of Antelope was a guest Saturday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Earwood. Mr. Califf's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Califf, took her home Sunday.

Earl Briggs motored to Portland Saturday to get Mrs. Briggs who had been there several weeks caring for her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Bill Maxwell, who had undergone a serious operation. Mrs. Anna Hartley, Gervais, returned with the Briggs' for a short stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Nickerson spent the week-end in Portland with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Evert Westland.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mulligan spent Friday and Saturday in Washington.

Henry Coats, who has been in Salem the past six weeks with his son and family, arrived Saturday at the home of his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Claud Coats who took him on to Hardman Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Truman Messenger, Betty Gerry and Carroll Messenger of Lexington, were Sunday afternoon visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Z. J. Gillespie.

E. T. Messenger motored to The Dalles Friday for a few days visit with relatives.

Boardman garden club met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Walter Wyss. One guest, Mrs. Anna Hartley, was present. Plans were made for an Easter food sale which will be held Saturday, March 24. Mrs. Henry Zivney was the co-hostess but was unable to attend due to the illness of her son Roger.

BOARDMAN 4-H News—
The 4-H beef and swine club met at the home of Bill Thorpe March 1 1951. The meeting was called to order starting with the salute to the flag and the club pledge. Motion was made that the meetings be every first Tuesday of each month.

Elroy Waldron and Oscar Velle made a report on different kinds of swine.

The next meeting will be held at Waldron's. Refreshments were coffee, cake jello and punch. —Marie Potts.

Home Talent Play At Monument Big Hit Despite Snow

The play put on by the Grange was a big success in spite of six inches of snow that fell during the latter part of the day. Most of the crowd stayed to enjoy the dance that followed.

Jack O. Sweek and Pauline G. Woiski were married February 8 in Carson City, Nevada. After the ceremony the couple toured central California. Before returning home the visited relatives and friends in Lodi and Stockton. The newly weds are employees of the R. E. A. in Monument. Mrs. Sweek is bookkeeper and he is right-of-way agent. They are at home to their many friends in the Holm apartments.

Mr. and Mrs. Chance Wilson accompanied Mrs. Bill Settle to Portland for medical attention. Mr. Wilson's examination showed a distended vein which called for surgery. The operation was performed February 27. Reports indicated he is improving and will be confined to the hospital for two weeks. Del Ward of Portland, his brother-in-law, brought Mrs. Wilson home Friday to attend to business matters and they returned to the city Saturday to be with Chance.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Hinton and daughters Sharon and Mary Ella and Mrs. Hinton's mother, Mrs. Throop went to Portland for Doc Hinton who underwent surgery in a Portland hospital some weeks ago and has been convalescing at the home of his daughter Ella.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Round spent several days in John Day at the home of her mother Mrs. Wright. They spent one day in Pendleton for medical care returning home Wednesday.

Clyde Jackson is a patient at the Blue Mountain General hospital at Prairie City. His wife has rented a room in order to be near him as his condition requires him to be hospitalized for three weeks.
