Rangers Office Open

Offices of the supervisor and ranger offices at county seats will be kept open for half day on Saturdays beginning May 12, according to an announcement by C. M. Rector, supervisor of the Umatilla national forest. Rangers offices at Heppner, Walla Walla and Pomeroy will be open from 8 a. m. till noon with one person on duty to serve the public. Likewise, the supervisor's office in Pendleton will be open from 8 a. m. until noon. Heretofore all offices were closed on Saturdays.

The action is in furtherance of the national policy to provide service to the public on more than a five-day week basis during the national emergency.

MOVE TO PORTLAND

Mrs. Jack Forsythe, accompanied by Mrs. B. C. Forsythe of Cascade Locks, drove up from Portland Tuesday to be on hand for loading out the Jack Forsythe furniture for removal to Portland. Jack now bears the rank of captain in the Air Transport service. He has been located at Portland since reentering the service and may remain there for a year. On the other hand he might be moved out within two months.

A dinner in honor of Rev. and Mrs. Harris who plan to leave Monument in the near future was served at the grange hall Tuesday.

Mrs. Lula Settle was a business visitor in John Day Thursday. Mrs. Nora Boyer made a business trip to Portland last week. Mrs. Darlene Boyer took her to Dayville where she caught the bus to Portland.

John King and wife of Long Creek visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Capon. John was a student in Monument high school when Mrs. Capon was the principal.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cork got 1500 baby turkeys this week. Mrs. Mildred Johnson of Bend is here helping to get the baby turkeys started. She is Cork's sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Steen and baby of Seattle are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cork this week. Mrs. Bill Morgan has been quite ill at her home near Monument. Mr. Morgan is a patient at the veterans hospital in Portland.

Daisy Simas, Ellen Patzer and Pat Brenner were business visitors in Pendleton Saturday. They returned home by way of Hermiston and Heppner.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Riechen of Portland spent the week-end with their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cork and children.

The HEC is sponsoring a dance after the graduation exercises on May 18. Everything will be donated and the proceeds will go to little Johnnie Musgrave who is suffering from an incurable disease. He is now in The Dalles. His mother and father are with him.

A meeting was held Tuesday night to consider ways and means of providing water for irrigation for the town of Monument. Like all public projects, it takes a lot of planning before anything can be done. At least it is a step in the right direction for the people here surely need irrigation water.

A Monument Co-operative Association meeting was held at the grange hall Saturday evening. Every one present signed their shares over to the REA. The long-awaited-for REA power will soon be on its way.

A meeting of the county court and all concerned with the proposed road to be built up the river from Monument was held in the grange hall Saturday. Everyone feels confident that all land owners will be satisfied and the road will go through.

Mrs. Lydia Capon entertained the MMM club at her ranch home Thursday. Mrs. Lois Hill was co-hostess. Mrs. Georgia Capon was the guest of honor. Mrs. Louise Fleming and Mrs. Grace Strirrit carried off the prizes. Mrs. Martha Matteson won the white elephant brought by Delsie Sweek. Refreshments of cake, coffee and ice cream were served by the hostesses. The next meeting which will be the last this summer, will be at the home of Mrs. Clara Strecker. It is hoped that a good crowd will be out.
