Baccalaureate Held Sunday Night For Lexington Class

Baccalaureate services were held Sunday night at the Christian church with the Rev. Louis Wetzel officiating. The program consisted of the prelude by Betty Lou Messenger, professional, hymns by the congregation; song "In the Garden" by the high school sextet; message to the graduates by Rev. Wetzel, and song "My Task" by the sextet; recessional. The class consists of David Buchanan, John Edwards, Patricia Majeske, Alene Shannon and Pfc Floyd Breeding. The eighth graders are Patricia McMillan, Donna Robinson, Phyllis Nolan, Nancy Harrah and Larry Groves. Ushers and receptionists were Earl Miller and Dorothy Lowrey.

Mrs. Roy Martin received word Sunday of the death of her father, D. Bellenbroek of Monument. Pfc Floyd Breeding, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Breeding is having a 10 day furlough at the home of his parents. While here Floyd will take part in the graduation exercises of his class. He is stationed in Louisiana. Mr. and Mrs. Herman Wallace spent the week-end in Woodburn where they attended the funeral of his nephew on Saturday. The Newt O'Harris are visiting their daughter Mrs. Roy Danielle and family in The Dalles. E. E. McFadden returned to The Dalles Tuesday for a check-up following his recent illness. Dr. and Mrs. Anderson of Portland visited their many friends in Lexington recently. Mrs. Anderson was formerly Myra Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Mitchell, nee Grace Cypert, and Mrs. Hurst of Tacoma and Mrs. Frank E. Parker of Heppner were visitors at the Barnett home one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Picker and son have moved from the O. W. Cutsforth ranch to the Greenup place above Heppner. PTA met Tuesday evening in the school auditorium. Mrs. Sorlien, primary teacher presented an interesting program including piano solos by Carol Ann Palmer, Johnnie Wallace and Judy Wilson; and a report on the PTA convention by Mrs. Armin Wilson, who attended as delegate. County council of PTA met in Boardman Wednesday with Mrs. Armin Wilson, Mrs. Robert Davidson and Mrs. O. G. Breeding attending.

The Junior-Senior banquet was served at O'Donnell's cafe Tuesday evening followed by a show. Mrs. Ina Nichols is keeping the Bill Nichols children while the mother and her new daughter, Linda Louise are getting acquainted. Mrs. W. E. McMillan, Mrs. Wm. Smethurst, Mrs. Annie Keene and Mrs. A. F. Majeske are in Klamath Falls this week attending the Rebekah convention. While there, Mrs. Keene will receive the degree of Chivalry, one of the highest degrees given.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Griffin of San Francisco are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Griffin.

The Louis Wetzel family have moved from Heppner to the parredecorating the premises was sonage after an extensive job of finished.

Mrs. Millard Nolan is spending some time in Bend attending a lodge convention.

The "Busy Dozen" sewing club met at the home of Mrs. Gene Cutsforth with Mrs. C. C. Jones as hostess. Mrs. Stanley Kemp was surprised with a stork shower. Those present were Mesdames Kenneth Nelson, Irven Rauch, Bob Kilkenny, Tad Miller, Liye Cox, and the honoree and hostesses.

Week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Crawford were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Penland and son Neal of Lebanon. It was the first time the Penlands had been in this part of the state and they were well pleased with what they saw. They found some old acquaintances here in the Edwin Dicks, Mr. Dick and the Penlands having attended the University of Oregon at the same time.

SOUND MOTION PICTURE ON CHURCH PROGRAM
"Reaching From Heaven," an 80-minute sound motion picture, Christ at the evening service will be shown at the Church of Sunday. This film is said to be "packed with drama, humor and pathos, and is romantic and exciting as well as Christian."

This will close Mr. McKowen's work as pastor of the church; next week he plans to return to Nebraska, which has been his evangelistic headquarters for several years. He says, "I'm really sorry to leave Oregon—it's a wonderful place to live!"

GRADE SCHOOL TRACK MEET RUN OFF WEDNESDAY, MAY 16
Heppner's elementary school was host to the grade schools of Lexington, Ione, Boardman and Irrigon at the annual track meet staged on Rodeo Field Wednesday, May 16.

Scoring was on an individual basis instead of on a school basis and total points were computed. (Due to lack of space it is not possible to print the individual scores.)
