Mrs. Clara Schulz Succumbs to Heart Trouble Saturday

Tuesday afternoon at Whiteside Funeral chapel in Elma, Wash. for Mrs. Henry A. Schultz, 68, who passed away early Saturday morning at the family home in Heppner. Death was due to a heart ailment with which she had been ill for the last one and one-half years. Interment was in the Beck family plot in the Elma cemetery.

Clara M. Beck was born February 20, 1883 at McCleary, Wash. Her parents were Mary Elizabeth (Forbes) and Andrew P. Beck, who were early pioneers of Washington, coming there in 1870 from Illinois. Her father was a Civil War veteran. She married Henry A. Schultz in Chehalis, Wash. March 21, 1908.

Surviving are the husband, a son, Max, Grand Island Neb.;

two daughetrs. Mrs. Erma L. Haugen, and Mrs. Evelyn M. Larsen, Portland; one grandchild, and two sisters, Mrs. Ida Lindsey, Tacoma, Wash, and Mrs. Annie Padgett, Puyallup, Wash.

Mrs. Schultz was a quiet unassuming woman who was devoted to her family. She was a member of the Maccabees of the World at Elma.

For You In A Hurry!!

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Hope "Cappy" Told Him Where To Get Off!

"Cappy" Fisher - who just retired after thirty-five years as a railroad conductor - was telling about a salesman who was often one of his passengers.

"That man was so busy," says Cappy, "he used to bring a dictaphone on the train to catch up on his letters. On one trip he'd been rushing around so much he clean forgot to bring his ticket. Left it on his desk,"

When Cappy started to tell him not to worry about the ticket, the salesman busts out with "Who's worried about the ticket? It's just that now I don't know what city I was going to get off at!"

Cappy might have been pulling our leg, but from where I sit, lots of us get so wrapped up in ourselves we often forget "where we're going." Some folks get so narrow they even begrudge their neighbors the right to enjoy a glass of beer now and then. Let's not forget that just as trains run on steam and oil, democracies run on freedom and tolerance!

Carton Keeps Butter Better

Proper refrigerator storage is an important angle in food conservation. Butter should be bought and kept in the paraffined carton in which it is purchased, so that moisture and the odors of other foods will not affect its flavor and consistency. All leftovers should be stored in covered containers. Store milk in your refrigerator immediately; the bacterial count increases rapidly at room temperature, and light destroys some of the valuable vitamin content.

Trappers' Numbers Noticeably Less

Only 1,286 trappers, the lowest number ever reporting to the game commission, followed their ancient pursuit last winter.
