 sin, Conrad Eckfeldt, and his sister, Mrs. Boyd. Conrad will be remembered by many here, having made his home in the Gooseberry section. Their journeying took them into the big tree forests of the Calaveras and the Sequoias where, they stated, they can really "feel their insignificance" on an almost hallowed ground. Old mining roads were traveled and mining towns so like the old days of '49 were part of their stops.
 Ionians seen on the streets of Portland included Mrs. Etta Bristow, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Bristow, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Lindstrom and family, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff McCabe and family. All enjoyed the Rose festival.
 Guests of Alton Yarnell during the week were two meteorologists from Richland, Wash., Neil Barr and Bob Kurrens. Both were his school mates at the University of Washington. The visitors were over for the rain makers meet in Condon.
 Clifford Carlson came by plane from Seattle Friday evening to help his family get moved. They were able to get their house sooner than expected so are getting moved a week earlier. Happy landing, Carlsons!
 Mrs. Sam Esteb and Mrs. O. L. Lundell are delegates to the state convention of Garden clubs this week. While the federation is in session, Oscar Lundell is planning on getting in some fishing in Hood River county and visit with an old friend and neighbor, Jesse Dees.

Young folks who will attend 4-H summer school in Corvallis are Janet Howton, Dorothy Dobbins, Shirlee McCabe, Dick Ekstrom and Malcolm McKinney. Janet says she is almost too thrilled to get her suitcase packed—the other girls, too. We'll wager the boys have to depend on mom. Have a good time, kids!
 Omar Rietmann is pruning up his down town properties by having removed much dry weeds and grass on his lot and filling in the strip between his and adjoining building with gravel.
 If ribbons were given out Paul O'Meara's would about top the list for "blue". Their strip of lawn, small fence and new walks are very charming.
 And Paul Pettyjohn's property—always nice.
 Hey! The Elys almost got left out. Berl Akers has been piling grass high, with young Berl's help. Less fire hazards every day.
 Mr. and Mrs. James Lindsay drove to Portland Monday to attend the funeral of his brother-in-law who passed away in that city.
 The Hoover children from Pendleton are visiting at the home of their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Baker.
 We are very proud of the showing made by Morrow county and the Ione youngsters at the fat stock show in The Dalles.
 The ladies of the Ione Garden club were busy Thursday making appropriate favors, 50 in all, to be used at the annual convention of the Federation of Garden clubs to be held in Hood River June 13-15.

 Leaving Wednesday for the Rose City and festival were the Paul Pettyjohn family, Mrs. Omar Rietmann and Mrs. Mary Swanson.
 The scythes, hand sickles, power mowers are still at work clearing parking strips and alleys of cheat and foxtail. A group was busy on the grange hall grounds also several individuals were out. Those observed by this reporter were Pete Hams, Frederick Martin and a worker at Mrs. Ida Coleman's grounds.

 Miss Letha Smith spent the week-end at her home in Prineville, going over Thursday. One brother was at home on leave from the navy and another brother left the following Tuesday to enter the service. Otto Nooy of Pendleton was also a guest Sunday at the Smith home.

Ralpt Currin of Pendleton was a business visitor in Heppner the first of the week.
 Mrs. C. C. Patterson returned to her home in Snohomish, Wash. Friday after a visit of several days at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. O. Hager.
 The next meeting of the American Legion auxiliary, Tuesday June 19, will be the last before the summer holiday. It will be held at 8 p. m. at the Legion hall and members are urged to keep the date in mind and be present.
