TALL COOLERS SO RIGHT FOR SUMMER

A SIGHT to perk up guests, or the family, in sultry weather, is a tray containing frosty, delicious looking drinks. Accompanied by a plate of packaged cookies, cooling drinks are so right for summer serving and so easy on the budget that you can afford to bring them on for all occasions.

Health-giving fruit juices are the base for many good beverages, and when given the added zest of pale dry ginger ale, no better thirst quenchers can be imagined. Ginger ale by itself is a fine summer drink. Add a ball of ice cream to a tall glass of ginger ale and you have a delicious soda. Here's a good refresher to serve to a crowd.

GINGER TEA FRUITADE

- 2 cups tea infusion
 - 1 cup fresh or frozen raspberries, crushed
 - 1 cup orange juice
 - ¼ cup lemon juice
 - ¼ cup sugar
 - Pale dry ginger ale
- Combine all ingredients; chill. Divide among 8 tall glasses. Fill glasses with ice cold pale dry ginger ale. Stir gently to mix.

which her mother, Mrs. Floyd N. Adams and sister, Mrs. John Roscoe of Kellogg, Idaho were hostesses. A picnic supper and birthday cake were served on the lawn of the Adam's home on Baltimore street after which the younger guests attended the theatre. Guests were Misses Sally Cohn, Nancy Eberhardt, Afton Eberhardt, Patricia Waldrip, Eleanor Rice, Dorothy French, Peggy Wightman, Rita Graves, Kathy Roscoe and Mr. and Mrs. Clive Huston, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Turner and Mrs. Elma Hiatt.

Supper was served on the terrace to the following guests, Mesdames W. O. Dix, C. W. McNamer, Lucy E. Rogers, Harvey Wilhite, Fred Parrish, Alma Morgan, Frances Mitchell, Luola Bengtson, Frank W. Baker and Miss Catherine Blisbee.

TYE-SEEHAFFER WEDDING SET FOR SEPTEMBER

Mr. and Mrs. William Seehafer of Ione this week announced the wedding date of their daughter La Rilla Jane to Mr. Ronald J. Tye. The ceremony will be held Friday, September 7 at the Ione Catholic church with friends invited to attend.

BOYCE-HUBBARD WEDDING SET

The wedding date of Lillian Hubbard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Van Hubbard of Ione, to Ray Boyce, Condon has been announced for Sunday, August 26 at 2:30 p.m. at the Hubbard ranch home near Ione. Friends are invited to the ceremony. Following a short honeymoon, the couple plan to live in Condon.

Linings—The Inside Story of New Fashions

Morrow County women who are planning that fall wardrobe or planning to take part in the tailoring schools throughout the county will be interested in the forecast of Miss Merle Scales, Clothing Specialist at Oregon State College. Miss Scales' prediction is that a lining isn't a mere lining any more, when we speak of clothes. If one new fashion trend continues, the lining may soon be as important as the garment itself!

She points out that lined linen suits are already high style. The linings in this case may be crepe, taffeta, or cotton. It's likely to have a colorful pattern, too. For instance, a black linen suit might boast a jacket lined with plaid broadcloth that matches a plaid broadcloth blouse.

Coats, too, will be lined with pretty prints that match the dress worn underneath.

Miss Scales says that even sweaters will sport showy linings. Gone is the boxy pull-over. It's been replaced by a snugly-fitting cardigan. This may be lined with cotton, silk or linen. And again, the lining may match a dress. Depending on fabric and style, such a sweater could be worn for either daytime or evening events.

So it looks like there's going to be many a "silver lining" when the dark suits appear this fall.

Army Services Now Open To Women

The Pendleton army and air force recruiting station has received authorization to enlist young unmarried women between the ages of 18 and 34 in the Women's Army Corps for a 2 year period.

MSgt. Frank E. Jones of the Pendleton office also reports an extension until August 31 has been granted selective service registrants to volunteer for their choice of assignment in airborne Far East command, regular army or air force.

A recent directive allows men with prior service to enlist for initial assignment in their choice of service in the army. These assignments are on quota basis.

Heppner women in Alaska shipwreck. Ruth Hart is victim of the sea and Evelyn Shipley survives. Miss Ruth Hart, former Heppner girl lost her life in the wreck of the ill-fated steamer Alaska, which sunk on the night of Sunday, August 7 after striking the rocks on Blunt Reef, on the California coast. Miss Hart was on her way to Sacramento to visit with friends. The story of the Alaska wreck was brought to the writer by another young woman who was born in Heppner and who made her home there for many years. Miss Evelyn Shipley, who now lives in Los Angeles, was returning south after visiting for a month and a half with relatives in Oregon and Montana.

She was one of the last to leave the sinking ship. She had been standing on the hurricane deck talking to Miss Hart.

Frank Turner and Harry Duncan, representing Heppner Lodge of Elks, departed for Marshfield on Sunday to take in the State meeting of the order, and incidentally to get a fill up on sea food. The Coos Bay people will give the antlered herd a mighty good time, they are great entertainers.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Ayers, who have been spending a vacation of several weeks at Wilhoit Springs and Portland, returned to their Heppner home on Friday.

How to make good telephone service even better....

Long Distance service is faster when you call by number

You'll find your Long Distance Operator can put your call through much quicker if you give her the out-of-town number you want... rather than just the name and address. That way, you see, you won't have to wait for her to get the number from "Information" in the town you're calling. So why not start a Long Distance list... by jotting down the number when the operator reports it to you.

look 'em up—jot 'em down—then call

You know, it's awfully easy to get telephone numbers "turned around" in your head. So to get the right number, it's a good idea to look it up in the telephone book... jot it down on a slip of paper... then make your call.
