After the business meeting, slides were shown by Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Heliker on their trip to Alaska in June. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Lana Padberg and Mrs. Palmateer. The next meeting will be at David Baker's.

Mrs. Sam Pomerantz left last week for her home in Los Angeles after visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Clark. Mrs. Clark is a patient at the Pioneer Memorial hospital in Heppner.

Oregon Boy Designers Win

WINNERS in the annual model car competition of the Fisher Body Craftsman's Guild are William Y. Endow (left), of Hood River, who took first state honors in the Junior Division (ages 12 through 15), and Gary J. Wiens (center), of Dallas, and Raymond W. Olson, (right), of Portland, who both shared in duplicate top state and regional awards in the Senior Division (ages 16 through 19). Young Wiens' father is employed by a General Motors dealer and Craftsman's Guild regulations stipulate when a member of the GM family qualifies a duplicate award be given. Each of the three boys received a cash award of $150, and Wiens' and Olson's models went on to take regional honors and have chances to win university scholarships in the national competition.
