Kvistad-Peterson Wedding Held At Valby Lutheran Church

The Valby Lutheran Church in Gooseberry was the scene August 18 of the wedding of Miss Eunice Ann Louise Peterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Peterson, and Roderick Kvistad, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Kvistad of Astoria. Rev. Henry Hokinson of Portland officiated the double ring ceremony, at 8 p.m. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white lace and net dress with a full length train and a Peter Pan collar. Her finger tip veil was held by a Juliet cap trimmed with seed pearls. She carried a white orchid on a White Bible. Miss Alice Nicolson was maid of honor wearing a yellow strapless taffeta dress with a cape, a ballerina length skirt and carried a nosegay of gladioli and stephanotis. She wore a matching head dress. The bridesmaids were Miss Mildred Carlson of Eugene and Miss Joyce Johnson, a cousin of the groom, of Astoria. They wore green dresses similar to the maid of honor and carried similar nose gays. The best man was the groom's father, Carl Kvistad.

Gerald Peterson, brother of the bride, and Fred Meyer, cousin of the groom of Portland were the ushers and also lighted the candles.

The church was decorated with white asters and gladioli.

Mrs. Lucy Peterson of Heppner sang "O, Promise Me" and "O, Perfect Love" and during the ceremony sang "The Lords Prayer". Mrs. Cleo Drake played the wedding marches. The bride's mother wore a grey print dress with navy accessories and the groom's mother wore purple with purple accessories. Each wore an orchid.

A reception was held afterwards at the Peterson home.

After the bride and groom cut the first piece of the three tiered cake the rest was served by Mrs. Myrtle Engstrom, aunt of the bride and Mrs. Arthur Kvistad, aunt of the groom.

The coffee was served by Mrs. A. Rasmussen and Mrs. A. Kvistad, grandmothers of the groom. Mrs. Donald Peterson, sister-in-law of the bride had charge of the punch bowl. Mrs. Louis Carlson and Mrs. Robert Hoskins had charge of the gift table and Mrs. Tad Miller had charge of the guest book. The ladies of the Valby Missionary Society assisted about the rooms.

The bride's going away suit was navy blue with matching accessories.

The newly weds went north on their honeymoon. They will be at home in Astoria where Mr. Kvistad is a teacher in the schools there.

Mrs. Kvistad is a graduate of the Ione schools and was a student of Oregon State College. Mr. Kvistad was a student of Oregon State and a graduate of the Col-
