DuVall-Vanwinkle Wedding Event of Last Sunday

St. Patrick's Catholic Church in Heppner was the scene of a lovely wedding Sunday evening at 6 p.m., when Miss June Van Winkle youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Van Winkle Sr. of Lexington became the bride of Kenneth Allyn DuVall, of Vancouver, Washington. He is the son of Clayton DuVall of St. Louis, Missouri and Mrs. Bugg of Reid, Kentucky.

Rev. Father McCormack read the ceremony.

The bride given in marriage by her father was lovely in a brocaded organdy ballerina length evening dress with matching bolero. She wore a shoulder length veil held in place by a coronet of seed pearls, and carried a bridal cascade of rubrum lillies, tied with white streamers. Her maid of honor was Miss Juanita Padberg of Portland, who was lovely in a ballerina length orchid colored dress, with matching slippers. The bridesmaids were Colleen Connor, and Joyce Buschke of Heppner dressed in identical frocks, of teal blue made on the same pattern as the maid of honor and carried cascades of yellow glomelios.

Best man was Vaughn Parker of Vancouver. Ushers were: Wm. Van Winkle, and John Ledbetter.

The mother of the bride wore a dark green crepe with a brown orchid. A reception was held in the church parlors, with a beautiful wedding cake centering the table, flanked on each side by bridesmaid cakes, with the cake circled in gardenias. The cake was a three-tiered creation with the traditional bride and groom on the top. Cutting, after the bride and groom cut the first piece was Mrs. Hermann Green of Heppner, sister of the bride, and pouring was Mrs. Jack Van Winkle of Heppner, and Mrs. Max Buschke of Heppner. In charge of the gifts were Francine Hisler and Betty Carlson. In charge of the guest book was Mrs. John Ledbetter, sister of the bride. Playing the bridal music was Mrs. Marguerite Glavey and singing was Mrs. Glavey and Mrs. Paul Hisler. The bride and groom will make their home in Portland where Mr. DuVall is stationed in the Coast Guard at Vancouver.

Out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Earl Eskelson of Wasco; Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Lulla and family of Stayton and Mr. and Robert Hudson, and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Van Winkle of Arlington; Mr. and Mrs. Wally Ford and Mr. Frank Moore of Vancouver; Mr.

Married Sunday at St. Patrick's Catholic church were Miss June Van Winkle of Lexington and Mr. Kenneth Allyn DuVall of Vancouver, Washington. They will make their home in Portland.

Miss Jane Seehafer Married Sept. 7 To Ronald J. Tye

Miss Jane Seehafer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. G. Seehafer and Ronald J. Tye, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Tye of Kansas City, Mo., were married at the St. Williams Catholic church in Ione at 10 a.m. Friday, September 7. The Rev. Francis McCormack officiated at the double ring ceremony. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white nylon dress over taffeta with a cape collar. Her finger tip veil was held in place by a crown of seed pearls. She wore a necklace of pearls and carried a bouquet of pink roses with white satin ribbons.

Mrs. Walter Corley was matron of honor and wore a yellow dress. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Margaret Davidson who wore green, & Mrs. Geo. Holderman who wore blue. They all wore matching head dresses and carried nose gays. Billy and Mildred Seehafer were the flower girls and carried baskets of flowers. They both wore pink dresses. All the attendants and the flower girls were sisters of the bride. Eugene Doherty was best man and the ushers were Marvin Casebeer and Cecil Rill. The choir of the church sang and Mrs. Cleo Drake played the music and the wedding marches.

The mother of the bride wore a grey suit with matching accessories and a corsage of pink roses. The church was decorated with white gladioli and pink carnations.

A reception at the Legion hall followed the wedding. After the bride and groom cut the first piece of the three tiered cake the rest was served by Mrs. S. B. Borquist of Portland. Mrs. Archie Ball poured the coffee and Mrs. Eldon Padberg presided at the punch bowl. Miss Wilda Dalzell had charge of the guest book and Billy and Mildred Seehafer had charge of the gifts. Others assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Lawrence Jones, Mrs. Art Dalzell, Mrs. Fern Smith, Mrs. G. H. Hermann and Miss Wilma Dalzell.

The bride wore a grey going away suit with white accessories.

They went on a short honeymoon. Mrs. Tye is a graduate of the Ione schools and Mr. Tye is a graduate of a high school in Kansas City.

Those attending the wedding from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. George Holderman of Corvallis, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Seehafer and children and T. W. Cowan of Westport, Mrs. S. B. Borquist of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Ball and Marvin Casebeer, Mrs. Allen and Mr. and Mrs. Harley Anderson and Dolores Kiethley of Heppner.
