Ione P-T A Holds Fall Reception for Teachers

By Echo Palmateer
The Ione P-T A. gave a reception for the teachers at the school house Friday evening, September 21. Mrs. Noel Dobyns had charge of the program, which consisted of a piano duet, "Hungary" by Mrs. Algott Lundell and her granddaughter, Karen Lundell. Mrs. E. M. Baker, president of the P-T A. gave the address of welcome, she complimented the teachers on their fine work, also the school board, the custodians, and the cooks and looked forward to having a very successful year.

Russell DeBontd gave the response. He compared the school with wheat farming, first the seed, second the planning, third the hard work and fourth, the elements. Henry Osibov, superintendent of the schools, introduced Miss Martha Tapanainen, nurse of Morrow County, and the following teachers and their wives: Mrs. Helen Weitmair, Mrs. Carl Linn, Mrs. Franklin Ely, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. Russell DeBontd, Mr. and Mrs. David Raskin, Mrs. Maureen Nelson, Hubert Thoreson and Mrs. Osibov.

Mr. Osibov told of the improvements made in the school building among them were the plastering, redecorating and painting. He praised Mrs. Victor Reitmann, a former board member, for the work she had done in planning and selecting colors for the decorating. Two new electric stoves have been installed in the kitchen and a slide set up on the school grounds. He brought a message from the board stating that they would like for the Ione Garden Club to do some landscaping on the East and South side of the school.

The school plans on drilling a well for extra water, plant trees and build a fireplace. The board has hopes that the school and the community will be able to cooperate in building the swimming pool and other buildings.

Mr. Osibov stated that a shop and music building should be started right away in order to have them finished by next fall.

The program was concluded with vocal solos, A Little Brown Bird Singing and When Love is Kind, by Mrs. Fred Hoskins, Jr., accompanied by Mrs. Cleo Drake, and a talk by Rev. A. Shirley.

Corsages were made by members of the Garden Club for the teachers, officers and those assisting. Refreshments were served from a table decorated with roses, dahlias and candles. Those serving were Mrs. David Reitmann, Mrs. Herbert Ekstrom, Mrs. Milton Morgan, Mrs. Ralph Crum, Mrs. Merle Baker, Mrs. Ray Heimbligner and Mrs. Raymond Lundell.

THANKS To Every One . .

Members of the Fair and Rodeo Committees along with the Morrow County Fair Board extend their thanks to everyone who assisted in making this year's Fair and Rodeo the success that it was. We especially thank those who made contributions for the new rest room facilities as well as the new barn which was built to replace the one destroyed by fire. We know everyone who contributed towards this year's show is interested to know that the show was a financial success.
