Golden Wedding Observed at Astoria

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Spittle, parents of Mrs. Lucy Peterson, observed their fiftieth wedding anniversary with open house, October 18, at their home in Astoria. On Sunday, the service at Grace Episcopal church in Astoria where they have been active workers for the past 68 years, was dedicated to Mr. and Mrs. Spittle. During all these years, Mr. Spittle has not missed a Diocesan Convention and is an active lay reader in the church. The first boys' choir was organized 68 years ago by Mrs. Spittle. During the service, their son, John Spittle of San Francisco, sang "Pinas Angelicus" (O Lord Most Holy) by Franck.

A reception was held following the service with the Guild ladies as hostesses. For this Mrs. Lucy Peterson sang "Eye Hath Not Seen" from "The Holy City" by Gaul. One of the highlights of the week was the dedication of his half hour program over KST to his parents by John Spittle, who is a tenor at St. Mark's Lutheran church in San Francisco. Another son, Samuel, and family came from New Jersey for the occasion. Mrs. Peterson and her daughters, Ruth, Alice, and Martha flew to Astoria to be present for the week's festivities.
