Mustangs Set for Last Game Against Moro; Grant Beaten 12 to 0

Coach Hal Whitbeck's Heppner Mustangs never looked better than they did last Friday when they took advantage of every break to defeat a heavy Grant Union eleven from John Day by the score of 12 to 0.

The first play of the game brought the spectators to their feet with a roar when Wendell Connor took the kickoff on his own 20 yard line and returned it 80 yards right down the middle for the initial Heppner touchdown. It looked as though the Mustangs might have everything their own way, but Grant settled down and resisted any more attempts to cross its goal line until about two minutes before the final gun when visitors fumbled a Mustang punt on about the two yard line and Jack Sumner fell on it across the goal for another six points. Neither conversion try was successful.

Heppner had the best of it in the statistics column chalking up many long gains both on the ground and in the air, but never was the game on ice until the last two minutes.

Grant had trouble getting its passing attack to click, due partly to the excellent guarding job performed by Gary Connor. Mickey Lanham also turned in an outstanding performance at right tackle, accounting for many hard tackles.

This Friday sees the Mustangs playing their final league game against Moro, who last year nudged the Heppner boys 13-12. The game starts at 2:00 o'clock and will be played on the Rodeo field.

Whitbeck believes his charges have an even chance to take the Sherman county squad. Moro has a slightly lighter line but heavier and faster backs. The Heppner boys are all in condition for the final game, none being injured in last week's game.

Both Heppner and Moro have been beaten by Maupin, so Friday's tussle will determine who will hold second place in the district 6B league.

County-Wide Plan Set Up For Community Chest Drive

An organizational meeting for the purpose of setting up a county wide Community Chest organization was held Tuesday afternoon at the Morrow county court house with representatives of 12 interested groups present.

A temporary committee was established with Judge Garnet Barratt acting as temporary chairman. Olive B. Hughes will act as secretary. The present committee will contact representatives in other parts of the county and call another meeting next week to organize a permanent chest committee.

A tentative budget of approximately $3100 was established by the group as sufficient to care for the areas needs. Of the total amount, $1400 will go to the Oregon state chest, $800 will be allocated for local Boy Scout work, $300 for other county projects, and $100 for campaign expenses. A definite budget will be established by the permanent organization at its first meeting.

Stearns Cushing, field representative for the Oregon Chest was present at Tuesday's meeting and explained the many services and welfare organizations who receive their support from contributions to the state chest. He told the group that five Morrow county children had, during 1950, received 541 days of care provided by chest organizations.

Barratt stated that it was the desire of the representatives present at this meeting that the organization be county-wide in scope and that 50% of the money collected in each area be kept there for local use.

Tentative plans call for a one-day drive to be held Monday, November 19.

William H. Lewis Dies in Portland

Heppner Legion Post Opens Member Drive

Plans to make Heppner Post No. 87 of the American Legion the greatest community service organization in the state were announced today by post commander Robert Corthell.

Commander Corthell's announcement marked the opening of Heppner Post's most intensive membership drive in its history.

"Our aim is the enrollment of every eligible local veteran of World Wars I and II and the Korean conflict in our post during the coming year," said Commander Corthell.

"We believe that every man and woman who has served in the armed forces of the United States should consider himself a stockholder in the greatest corporation in the world—America," the Commander stated. "Many of our veterans paid for their 'stock' with their blood. All have paid for it with a patriotic service. The stockholders of any corporation naturally seek to protect their investment. This can be done by honorably discharged veterans of Heppner by becoming active members of Heppner Post of The American Legion, the greatest of all veterans' organizations.

Meetings of the Heppner Post are held every Monday night in the Post clubrooms at Heppner. All eligible veterans of Morrow County are invited to attend any of these meetings and get acquainted.

Aluminum Paint Spread on Hallowe'en

The Heppner school was the only place reporting any serious Hallowe'en vandalism Thursday morning. Leonard Pate, high school principal, found a considerable amount of aluminum paint spread on windows and in a few places on the building. There was also the usual collection of misplaced road signs adorning the school grounds.

Downtown store windows showed a remarkable absence of artistic soap designs on the "morning after".

Maybe We're the Palm Springs of Oregon!

Here's something for the Heppner chamber of commerce to talk about.

From April 28 to September 30 Heppner had 154 consecutive days of sunshine according to T. P. Maher, local "sun gazer" who has been keeping a careful check during recent months. Clouds covered the city on Sept. 30 and again on October 12 and 13.

The chamber should be able to capitalize on the fact of so much sunshine in addition to enough rainfall to raise the greatest wheat crop in Morrow county's history.

Investigation Shows County's Slot Machines Removed

Morrow county district attorney Bradley D. Fancher told the Gazette Times Wednesday that he had investigated the one address reported in the recent letter sent out by the state attorney general George Neuner as having slot machines on the premises.

Fancher stated that he had checked with officials at the Heppner Elks lodge, listed in Neuner's letter, as the one place in the county having the machines, and was informed that they had been removed. A personal check by a representative of the Gazette Times verified this statement.

Fancher stated that his office has always been willing to investigate any complaint of slot machine operation, but that no such complaint has ever been made to him during the past two years.

Fancher reported that state police had picked up three slot machines in a Boardman tavern several weeks ago and that complaints had been filed in judge William Garner's court against the owners and one woman who police claim was playing a machine. All had pleaded not guilty and the hearing has been set for early in November. Names of the accused were not immediately available.

The slot machine investigation throughout the state was started early this week when the state attorney general sent letters to the district attorneys of every county advising them that federal lists showed the location of "coin operated machines" in their respective counties. The federal list came from persons applying for the newly required tax stamps for such machines.

The listing credited Morrow county with just one such machine.

Soroptimists Honor United Nations

The Soroptimist Club met at O'Donnell's for luncheon and program marking the 6th anniversary of the Chapter of the United Nations.

Mary Van Stevens, chairman of the United Nations committee, gave a very interesting talk using the Statue of Liberty and United Nations as the subject for 3 reasons.

1. The birthday of the Statue of Liberty and the United Nations Day are less than a week apart. Oct. 28 the First Lady of Freedom is 65 years old and Oct. 24 the United Nations was 6 years old.

2. Were it not for America's belief in the Goddess of Freedom, there would be no United Nations and

3. Since the Soroptimist Club is composed of women, it seems suitable that they should pay tribute to America's Goddess of Freedom.

There was 100% attendance of members present. Mrs. Gene Case is a new member. Club members each brought a package of marshmallows to help with refreshments for the Hallowe'en hayride Oct. 31.

"The Night of January 16" by Ayn Rand has been chosen as the play to be presented by the Junior class of Heppner High school early in December. The play is a mystery concerned with various happenings on the night of January 16 and is under the direction of Richard Knight, English instructor.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wagener have moved their household effects to the Hayes ranch on Butter Creek where he will be employed by Judge Garnett Barratt.

Miss Barbara Enbysk, registered nurse from Pendleton, arrived the last of the week to work at Pioneer Memorial Hospital. Miss Enbysk is making her home with Mrs. Alta Brown on N. Court street.

Mrs. Charles Hynd of Pendleton visited over the weekend with her sister-in-law, Mrs. L. Case. She was also a guest of the Hynd family during her visit in Heppner.

Judge Bert Johnson of Ione and his sister, Miss Olga Johnson of Portland, were visiting friends in Heppner Friday.

Sam Turner is a patient at St. Anthony's hospital in Pendleton where he underwent major surgery the last of the week.

A long-time Heppner resident, Mrs. Hattie McDaniels, who left here October 10 for her former home in Indiana, spent 63 years being homesick for her hometown according to a clipping from the Hebron, Indiana paper, received by a daughter, Mrs. Pearl Steers. Another daughter, Mrs. Alice Hastings, also lives in Heppner. It stated: Mrs. Pauline Wale, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hiatt and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Press arrived home Tuesday from a twelve day trip to the west coast. Besides seeing lots of beautiful scenery, another traveling companion was added to the party at Heppner, Oregon. She is Mrs. Hattie McDaniels, an aunt of Mrs. Hiatt, who is now 85 years of age and has lived in Oregon for 63 years and has been homesick for her home state,

Joyce-Ette Rummage Sale Plans Complete

Contributors to the Jay Cee-ette rummage sale next week are reminded that donations will be picked up Wednesday, November 7, to be sorted and priced before the start of the sale.

An innovation in conduct of the sale this year is the two-day duration, Friday and Saturday, November 9 and 10. The Jay Cee-ettes planned the short but intensive sale so as to impose on the hospitality of the Rosewall Motor Company, where the rummage will be held, no longer than necessary.

Items acceptable for the sale include everything from good used clothing to white elephants. Furniture, housewares, books, appliances, and toys are among the departments which have proved popular in previous sales.

Purchasers are reminded that rummage sale prices are ridiculously low, and that it's "first come, first served" at all sales.

People wishing to contribute to the project, which is conducted to help finance the Jay Cee-ette kindergarten, are asked to call Mrs. Ed Dick at 622 or 2902.

Miss Margaret Gillis of Independence was an over Sunday guest of Mrs. Olive Hughes. Miss Gillis was formerly county health nurse in Heppner.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilkinson have returned from a vacation trip which took them to Montana where they visited their daughter, Frances, and family and on to Canada to visit friends.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Murtishaw of Irrigon were transacting business in Heppner Monday.
