Leslie Grant Speaks To Soroptimist Club

Leslie Grant, superintendent of Morrow County public schools, was guest speaker at the Soroptimist Club Thursday noon at O'Donnell's Cafe. Mr. Grant chose as his subject, "Women in Education" explaining in detail the part played by women in educating the youth of our nation. He also brought out an interesting contrast in the present status of married women teachers with that of the same group a generation ago when a married woman was seldom hired as an instructor except in a case of great necessity.

Crowell-Steagall Wedding Monday

The St. Patrick's Catholic Church in Heppner was the scene Monday at 10 a. m. of a beautiful wedding when Miss June Steagall daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Steagall of Lexington became the bride of Howard Crowell, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Crowell of Ione. The bride was lovely in a white satin and lace formal gown, cut on princess lines and buttoning down the back. She wore a finger tip veil falling from a tiara of seed pearls. The dress was designed and made for her by a friend, Elise Baurenfiend of Morgan. She was attended by her sister Deanna Steagall as maid of honor who was lovely dressed in pink dotted swiss formal, and the following bridesmaids Miss Elise Baurenfiend, who wore green, made identical to the maid of honor, and Kay Crowell of Ione, sister of the groom wearing blue, and another sister Patricia Steagall in yellow. The girls wore matching head dresses, and carried nosegays of pink carnations with contrasting ribbons, except the maid of honor who carried white carnations. The brides cascade was two beautiful white orchids set in bouvardia and satin streamers.

The groom was attended by his brother Robert Crowell of Ordinance, and ushers for the affair were Wayne Gollyhorn and Robert Steagall. The bride was given away by her brother Wilbur F. Steagall, with Father McCormack reading the double ring ceremony. The music was selections played by Margeurite Glavey, and two solos, "Panis Angelicus and Ave Maria" by Karen Brooks, accompanied by Myrl Ann Powers both of Pendleton and former classmates at the St. Joseph's academy of Junes.

A reception followed immediately in the church basements, with a beautiful cake of three tiers topped with the traditional bride and groom and decorated with pink and silver roses. The cake graced the center of the serving table, with a yellow rose ring, around it and a beautiful silver coffee and tea server, at one end, presided over by Mrs. Charles Breshers, grandmother of the bride, of Lexington and at the other end, a lovely crystal punch bowl adorned the table presided over by an aunt of the grooms, Mrs. Shuler of Hermiston, and cutting the cake was Mrs. Vester Nelson, a sister of the groom from Omak, Washington. Also assisting with the reception was Mrs. O. G. Breeding, an aunt of the brides, and Mrs. Edwina Gibson also an aunt, of The Dalles, and Mrs. W. E. McMillan and Mrs. Jim Hager and Mrs. C. C. Jones. The brides mother wore a two piece black street dress and an orchid corsage, and the grooms mother wore a black dress and an orchid corsage. The others in the reception wore white gardenia corsages. Barbara Steagall small sister of the bride was in charge of the guest book and wore a green silk dress with a white carnation corsage.

After the ceremony the young couple left for an undisclosed place for a weeks honey moon, after which time they will be at home at their apartment in Heppner and Mrs. Crowell will continue with her work in the bank.

the Indians of the early Oregon territory and the settlement of the Whitman Mission near the present site of Walla Walla. Ten members were present. Refreshments were served.

Legion, Auxiliary Hold Annual Dinner

Ninety members and guests attended the annual potluck dinner sponsored by the American Legion and Auxiliary at the Legion Hall Saturday evening preceding the Armistice day dance. A program was presented during the dinner hour with William Barratt, master of ceremonies, who introduced Bob Corthell and Mrs. Mabel Heath, presidents of the two organizations. Each gave a brief welcome. Rev. J. Palmer Sorlien was guest speaker of the evening. Distinguished guests present were Jack Edmondson, president of District No. Six and Bob Mace, Portland, representative of the State Game Commission. They were presented and made a few pertinent remarks. Decorations were in the patriotic theme and the centerpiece by Mrs. Laurel Van Marter was especially noteworthy in that it carried out the Legion colors in large chrysanthemums with the words "Post No. 87" written thereon in purple chenille. Mrs. Mabel Heath, Auxiliary president, was in charge of general plans for the banquet assisted by Mrs. LaVelle Dick, Mrs. Ruth Van Winkle, and Mrs. Jackie Labhart. Decorations were by Don Bellanbrock, Willard Blake and Jack Edmondson of the American Legion.
