Nooy-Smith Nuptials Held at Prineville

At a morning ceremony Nov. 12 at 10 o'clock Miss Leatha Smith of Heppner, daughter of Mrs. Sylvia Smith, Prineville, became the bride of Otto C. Nooy, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Nooy of Pendleton.

The impressive double ring ceremony was performed at St. Joseph's Catholic church by the groom's uncle, Father Otto C. Nooy of The Dalles.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Roy E. Denton of Prineville, wore a white tissue faille with lace yoke and long train. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a coronet of seed pearls. She carried a white prayer book topped with a white orchid. Her only attendant, the matron of honor, was Mrs. John Butler of Pendleton who was dressed in chartruse tissue faille and matching braided coronet. She carried a mixed bouquet in colors to match her gown. The mother of the bride wore navy sheer Crepe with navy accessories and a corsage of pink rosebuds.

The groom's mother wore purple crepe with pink and black accessories and a corsage of pink rosebuds.

John Butler of Pendleton was best man and Ed Kenny of Spokane and Maurice Kennedy, of Pendleton, brothers-in-law of the groom were ushers.

Miss Helen Stump of Prineville was organist for the wedding music and accompanied John Nooy, brother of the groom as he sang "Ave Maria," "Psalms Angelicus," "Oh Whence to Me This Bliss" and "O Lord I am not

Mr. and Mrs. Otto C. Nooy (formerly Leatha Smith) who were married November 12 at Prineville. They will make their home in Pendleton.
