Gift Wrapping Shown At Extension Meeting

Mrs. Lloyd Burkenbine was hostess for the Home Extension Unit meeting at her home in S. Heppner Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Robert Evans gave a very interesting demonstration of gift wrapping and Mrs. Carl Vincent, assisted by Mrs. Douglas Drake, demonstrated the use of home-made ready mixes. Members present included Mrs. Ralph Cater, Mrs. E. O. Ferguson, Mrs. Willard Warren, Mrs. Lee Scrivner and Mrs. Pearl Devine. Refreshments were served. The next meeting falls on a holiday, January 1, 1952 and has been postponed according to an announcement by Mrs. Scrivner. The meeting date will be decided later.

O. E. S. Social Club Met Saturday Evening

Nine tables of cards were in play at the O. E. S. social club party Saturday evening at the Masonic hall. High score in bridge was received by Mrs. Richard Wells; in pinocle by Mrs. C. O. Carmichael of Lexington; and in canasta by W. O. Dix. Mrs. W. O. Dix was awarded the door prize. Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Roy Quackenbush, Mrs. Charles Stout and Mrs. James Hayes.

Episcopal Bazaar Highly Successful

A highly successful bazaar and tea was held at the Episcopal Parish House Saturday afternoon. This is one of the money raising projects sponsored by the Women's Auxilliary of All Saints Church. Mrs. R. B. Rice was the general chairman of the affair assisted by the following committees: tea and kitchen, Mrs. Ada Piper, Mrs. Lucy Peterson, Mrs. Ethel Adams, Mrs. Hazel Mahoney, Mrs. Marguerite Chapin, Mrs. Louise Farley, Mrs. Pauline Hughes and Sally Marlatt; miscellaneous booth, Mrs. Anna Bayliss, Mrs. Hilma Anderson, Mrs. Mary Wright, Mrs. Josie Jones; food booth, Mrs. A. D. McMurdo, Mrs. Jos. J. Nys and Mrs. F. W. Turner; surprise package booth, Mrs. Henry Happold and Mrs. C. A. Kane. The money raised from the bazaar is used for various benefits for which the Women's Auxilliary is responsible during the year.

Fanchers Entertain With Surprise Party

Mr. and Mrs. Bradley Fancher entertained with a surprise party Friday evening at their home on Gilmore street complimenting Mrs. J. C. Sumner, on the occasion of her birthday. Present were Mrs. Charles O'Donnell, Mr. and Mrs. James Lovegren, Miss Rita Cox, J. C. Sumner, Jack, Jimmy, Jay and Wally Sumner. Following the opening of gifts, refreshments of birthday cake and ice-cream were served.

IOOF and Rebekah To Hold Joint Meeting

The Oddfellow and Rebekah lodges will hold a joint meeting Wednesday, December 12 at 8:30 o'clock. This will be the annual Christmas party and gifts for the Oddfellows home are to be brought at that time. A program has been arranged and refreshments will be served. Mrs. R. G. McMurtry and Mrs. Pearl Devine are in charge of arrangements.

Soroptimists See Films At Thursday Meeting

In order to get a birdseye view of the two cities which will be prominent in Soroptimist affairs this coming year, the Heppner club was shown two films, one of Washington, D. C. and the other of Copenhagen, Denmark, at the Star Theater Thursday noon following a sack luncheon. The national convention will be held in Washington, D. C. in late July and from August 10-16 the international conference will be held in Copenhagen. Several local Soroptimists are making plans to attend the national convention and on to Europe for the international meeting and the tour of other countries that has been arranged for visiting members. The Club has sent its Christmas package to its sister club at Tamworth, England. The gifts consist of foodstuffs and staples which are in short supply in England. Last year, the gifts were auctioned off to members of the Tamworth Club and the money used for the club project.

Past Matrons Meet At Bayless Home

Mrs. Frank Wilkinson and Mrs. W. O. Bayless were hostesses last week for the Past Worthy Matrons club of Ruth Chapter 32 OES at the Bayless home on South Court street. Election of officers was held with Mrs. Archie Ball elected as president; Mrs. Wilkinson, vice president; and Mrs. Harley Anderson, secretary-treasurer. Following the business meeting, bridge was played with Mrs. Gene Ferguson receiving high score. In Bingo, Mrs. E. R. Huston was high.

St. Patrick's Altar Society Plan Dinner

Mrs. William Bucknum entertained the Altar Society of St. Patrick's Roman Catholic Church Monday evening at her home on W. Center street. Fourteen were present. Mrs. Harry O'Donnell, Jr., received the guest prize. The Altar Society is planning a benefit ham dinner to be given Dec. 29th. They also decided to serve breakfast to the men of the Parish following their monthly group communion.

Degree of Honor Plan Christmas Party

The annual Christmas party of the Degree of Honor is scheduled for the evening of December 11. A film "Pioneering in Rehabilitation" from the Oregon Society for Crippled Children will be shown. This is a color and sound film. Home movies will be shown. Members are urged to attend. There is to be a silver offering which will be used to buy gifts for the old folks at the hospital.

Adult Bible Class Entertained Monday

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Doolittle entertained the Adult Bible Class of the First Church of Christ Monday evening at their home on W. Church street. Fourteen members were present. Following the business session, Chinese checkers were played. The class is having their classroom redecorated. Mrs. L. D. Neill and Mrs. Frank Parker assisted with the refreshments.
