County School News Notes

The Morrow county teachers association held the regular meeting of the teachers Oregon Educational Association at Lexington Tuesday. A dinner was served by the Lexington P-TA at 6:00 and following that the group retired to the auditorium and held their regular meeting under the direction of Jim Vanover, county president.

A report on the Morrow county speech festival to be held March 12 was discussed by Gladys Ely, committee chairman. Mrs. Lavern Partlow of Boardman reported on the O. E. A. delegate assembly she attended in Portland during the last weekend.

Following the regular business meeting the teachers of Morrow county heard Marble Cook, O. E. A. field representative for the State of Oregon. His topic being the improvement of the school personnel. Cook cited many instances of this progress, by the standards being raised in schools and by the higher qualifications for teachers. Also that the patrons were desiring better educational facilities be placed in the schools and that better buildings be constructed. Legislators were more interested in education and were setting up better requirements and financial support for the schools.

At the close of the meeting the teachers and guests were escorted to the gym where the Hardman and Lexington square dancing clubs entertained in a regular old fashioned dance evening.

On Tuesday of this week Mr. Grant and Clyde Martin of the State Department of Education visited the Lexington schools and made a regular routine inspection. Wednesday the Hardman and Ione schools were visited, Thursday the Heppner schools and on Friday the Irrigon and Boardman schools will be visited. Martin reports the Morrow county schools are doing a very fine educational job and meeting practically all the requirements for standardization.

Wednesday night at 7:00 the Boardman F. F. A. chapter held its annual banquet at the High School cafeteria.

The Heppner P-T. A. regular meeting was held Wednesday evening at the high school auditorium.

Mrs. Clarence Brenner was up from Ione Tuesday attending to business matters in Heppner.

Mrs. Beatrice Bennett and children spent three days last week in Colfax, and Pullman, Wn. visiting friends. Mrs. Bennett resided in Pullman prior to moving to Heppner several months ago.

Mrs. Charles McDaniel of Monument was a business visitor in Heppner Saturday.

Mrs. Mary Van Stevens returned Friday from Goldendale, Wn., where she spent several days looking after business matters.

Extra Adkins of Kinzua was a weekend visitor in Heppner.
