Mrs. Soward Speaker at Soroptimists

Earl Soward was guest speaker at the Soroptimist Club luncheon at O'Donnell's Cafe today noon, telling of New Year's customs in Hawaii where she is stationed with the U. S. Army during the late war as a plain. In telling of life in the islands, Rev. Soward explained that racial equality is more universal there than on the Mainland and that people are accepted for their true worth rather than for material belongings. New Year is celebrated as a religious holiday—a time for taking stock rather than the frivolous affair as become in the States. Rev. Soward also told of the beauties of the Islands, the educational facilities and many other interesting facts gathered during her trip there. Following the program, the members held a "Bring a Buy" sale—a new idea introduced to swell the coffers of the project fund. Mrs. Oliver Soward was program chairman today.

Churches Hold Watch Parties Monday

New Year's Watch parties were held at the First Christian and Methodist Churches Monday evening. At the Christian church the annual business meeting was held preceding the watch party.
