

Gay 90s Dance Held at Monument

By Millie Wilson

The Gay Ninety Dance, sponsored by the American Legion and Auxillary on Jan. 19, drew a large crowd, some coming from Heppner, Long Creek, Dayville, John Day and Spray. Many were in costume. Music was furnished by Marrows Orchestra of Long Creek. The prizes were awarded to George Legler for the best whiskers, Betty Simas for the best dressed woman, Sharon Hankie and Jerry Cupper the best dressed children. Henry Cupper the fanciest whiskers, Mead Gilman, the best dressed man, and Darlene Capon won the door prize. Mr. and Mrs. Chance Wilson, accompanied by Mrs. Chet Brown, drove to John Day last Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson were attending to matters of business and shopping while Mrs. Brown visited her husband at the Blue Mountain Medical Center. Mr. Brown hopes to be released from the hospital by Tuesday. Mrs. Bob Lesley and children, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Musgrave and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Sweek and daughter, Carol, were John Day visitors last Friday. Word was received by Mrs. Lindell Broadfoot from Carmel, Broadfoot in California, stating that he and his wife were the proud parents of a baby boy. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Rickard and sons spent last week end in Salem.
