

Olsen-Cutsforth Nuptials Held In Lexington

Alta Fay Cutsforth, daughter of O. W. Cutsforth of Lexington and Mrs. Alta Cutsforth of Heppner, was united in marriage to Ronald T. Olsen son of Mrs. Charles Wardwell of Hermiston.

The lovely double ring ceremony was performed at the Cutsforth ranch home. The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in an afternoon frock of white lace over pink taffeta with rhinestone trim. Her headress was fashioned of white taffeta and lace from which fell a shoulder length veil of net. She carried a white muff which held a pink anthurium.

The ceremony was by candle light and read by the Rev. Alfred Shirley of Ione, with the candles being lit by a sister of the bride, Sharon of Walla Walla, who wore aqua moire and carried a nosegay of carnations. The ceremony took place before the fireplace which was banked with Daffodils and heather.

The brides only attendant was Juanita Padberg of Portland, who wore a gray suit with black accessories and a corsage of white carnations. The best man was Orville Cutsforth, Jr., brother of the bride.

Preceding the ceremony Mrs. C. C. Carmichael played "Prelude" and Mr. and Mrs. Don Hatfield sang "I Love You Truly". Mrs. Carmichael also played Lohengrins Wedding March.

The brides mother chose for her dress an apricot colored suit with green accessories and wore a green orchid. The grooms mother chose a navy blue street dress and wore a pink orchid.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the Cutsforth ranch home. The dining room was lovely with the center of attraction the table which held a three tiered cake topped with the traditional bride and groom and circled with a ring of pink rose buds and heather. The other decorations being silver. While the bride and groom cut the first piece of cake, Mr. and Mrs. Don Hatfield, accompanied by Mrs. C. C. Carmichael, sang "O Promise Me". After which Mrs. Gene Cutsforth served the cake, Mrs. Don Pointer served the punch and Mrs. Nate McBride poured at the coffee table. Mrs. Robert Kilkenny, a sister of the bride, was in charge of the gifts, Leila McLacklin was in charge of the guest book, Mrs. Lyle Cox and Mrs. Harold Townsend of Hermiston assisted about the rooms. Pat and Kenny Cutsforth, the brothers of the bride, acted as the hosts for the evening.

For going away the bride chose a navy blue suit with winter white accessories and wore an anthurium corsage. After a short honeymoon the young couple will be at the Cutsforth ranch for a few weeks prior to moving to their home in Hermiston.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Townsend and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wardwell of Hermiston, Mabel Hurst, Wayne Hurst, Lenora Moeller, Marion Olsen and Ronald Pierce of Free-water, and Orville Cutsforth, Jr. who is a student at Oregon Tech at Klamath Falls.

Mrs. Robert Kilkenny was hostess to a dinner at their home Fri-
