Ione P-TA Study Groups Hold Meets

By Echo Palmateer

Two P-TA study groups met last week at the school on Wednesday. The parents of pre-school and primary children held a discussion on the subject responsibility scaled to size led by Mrs. Fred Martin and the other groups. Thursday was a discussion on what is Security led by Rev. A. Shirley. There were 14 present. This is an adult group. A discussion was held at both groups and much interest shown. Mrs. Claude Riley is in charge of the first group and Mrs. Omar Rietmann the second. Mrs. Henry Osibov is the chairman of the entire group.

The making of drapes was demonstrated at the Ione Extension unit meeting by Mrs. Henry Baker at the home of Mrs. Sam Esteb Friday of last week. Each member present made a sample drape. At the business meeting conducted by Mrs. L. A. McCabe, chairman, it was voted that the unit recommend to the county committee that the home festival meeting place be rotated each year. Mrs. E. M. Baker gave a report on her trip to the 4-H club leaders conference in LaGrande. Ronald Baker received the Governor Snell 4-H achievement there. Morrow County should feel proud to have the name of a Morrow county boy on the cup. The cup is only to keep one year by the one that earns it. A new 4-H club has been added, Camp Cookery, led by Mrs. Gordon White. The next unit subject will be made over clothing. A sack lunch was served at noon. The preliminary meeting for the slipper chair work shop will be held in Heppner Feb. 19 from 1:30 to 3:30 p. m.

The mothers of the children of the nursery school held a work shop at the school house Monday evening and made rhythm band instruments and were taught finger painting. Mrs. Helen Wieter, primary teacher in the Ione school, was the instructor.
