Maranatha Club Meet At Hermann Home

Mrs. G. Hermann and Mrs. Marion Palmer entertained the Maranatha club at the Hermann home Wednesday of last week. The club discussed purchasing covers for the tables and piano in the church and repairing the parsonage. Refreshments were served by the hostesses and the door prize was received by Mrs. Wallace Matthews.

AN EARLY February wedding in Eugene united Miss Mildred Carolyn Carlson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Carlson of Ione and Robert A. Hope, Eugene. They will live in the valley city.

Hope-Carlson Wedding Held In Eugene

In a candlelight, double-ring ceremony on Saturday afternoon, February 2, Miss Mildred Carolyn Carlson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Carlson of Ione and Robert A. Hope, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph A. Hope of Eugene, were married at the home of the bridegroom's parents, by Rev. Berlyn V. Farris of the First Methodist Church of Eugene.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a royal blue suit, white hat, navy accessories and a white orchid corsage. Her attendant, Mrs. Lyle McGunnigle of Eugene, wore a navy suit with pink hat and corsage of pink and white carnations. Lyle McGunnigle was best man.

The bride's mother wore navy blue and the groom's mother wore Alice blue, their corsages were Talisman roses tied with gold.

Arrangements of daffodils, Talisman roses, white carnations, acacia and white tapers decorated the rooms. Before the ceremony, Miss Ellen Stone sang "At Dawning", "If God Left Only You", and "Oh, Perfect Love", accompanied by Mrs. Nadine Harrang at the piano.

The reception table was centered by the tiered wedding cake. Mrs. J. P. Darst of Seattle, sister of the bride, cut the cake. Mrs. Ralph A. Hope, Jr. poured. Miss Shirley Smouse of Portland was in charge of the guest book.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Carlson of Ione, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Darst and sons Dick and Leonard of Seattle, Mrs. Clifford Carlson and daughter Leelle, of Seattle, Miss Dee Williams, Mrs. Pauline Herbert, Frank Honey, and Miss Shirley Smouse all of Portland.

Both the bride and groom attended the University of Oregon where the groom was a member of Phi Delta Theta fraternity.

The couple left immediately after the reception, in a new car, on a honeymoon trip to Omaha, Nebraska. They will be at home after March 1st at 259 East 13th St., Eugene, Oregon.

Soroptimists Have Valentine Party

A Valentine Party was the feature of the Soroptimist Club luncheon Thursday noon at O'Donnell's Cafe. During roll each member presented a "home-made" valentine to the person whose name she had drawn at the previous meeting. Many clever valentines were presented. The prize, a quaint nosegay of red roses in a paper lace doily, was given to Elaine George for the original poem and red paper heart she presented to Leta Humphrey. Mrs. J. C. Payne was the judge. The program for the day was arranged by Mrs. Ruth Sanders. The centerpiece was a silvered tree with red hearts hanging from the branches. Mrs. Sadie M. Sigsbee was a guest of the club.

Altar Society Bingo Party Draws Crowd

A large crowd attended the Bingo Party sponsored by the Altar Society at St. Patrick's Roman Catholic Church Saturday evening. John Ernsdorff called the numbers. Mrs. Harry O'Donnell and Mrs. Jack Healy distributed prizes. Refreshments were served.

Monument Scene of Cork-Moore Wedding

Monument's High School gymnasium was the setting Wednesday, February 13, for the wedding of Miss Anita Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emory Moore of Whitebird, Idaho and Roy Arlot Cork, of the U. S. Navy and son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cork of Monument.

Rev. Ernest Brown of John Day officiated in the double ring ceremony. The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a dress of white satin and lace with a cathedral train. Her waist length veil of illusion was held by a matching crown of satin. She carried a bouquet of white lilies.

Mrs. Robert Lesley, sister of the groom, was matron of honor, wearing an orchid formal and carrying a bouquet of yellow carnations.

The three attendants were Miss Pat Kirk, aunt of the bride, wearing a pink formal and carrying a bouquet of orchid carnations; Miss Rhoebe Bleakman, cousin of the groom, in a green formal with a bouquet of pink carnations and Miss Shirley Robertson, cousin of the groom wearing a pink formal with a bouquet of white carnations.

Norris Stubblefield was best man and the ushers were Don Gilman and Glen Legler.

Miss Yvonne Stoneman had charge of the guest book, she was dressed in yellow.

Mrs. Joe Simas, sister of the groom, was at the piano, and wore an afternoon frock of watermelon red with a corsage of white carnations. Mrs. Stanley Boyer, sister of the bride and Charles Roach, Jr. sang.

The mother of the bride wore a grey suit with navy accessories and a pink and white carnation corsage. The groom's mother wore a gold suit with brown accessories and white carnation corsage.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the grange hall. The bride and groom cut the lovely three-tiered cake. Mrs. Stanley Boyer poured and Mrs. Joe Simas served the cake.

Attending the wedding from a distance were the paternal grandparents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Ad Moore of Heppner and her maternal grandmother, Mrs. Herman Kirk of Wallowa.

Triple Links Club Plan Food Sale

Mrs. Clive Huston, Mrs. Ben Anderson, Mrs. Frank Ayers and Mrs. J. C. Payne were hostesses for the Triple Link Club Monday evening at the Oddfellows Hall. Committees appointed to arrange for the food sale which is scheduled for March 1, at the Red and White store, include Mrs. Ben Anderson, and Mrs. Clive Huston, pricing; Mrs. Merle Kirk and Mrs. Rufus Piper, sales; and Mrs. Victor Groshen, general chairman.

The sale will begin at 10:30 o'clock Saturday morning. A money-raising project, the traveling basket, was started at the meeting. Proceeds from this will be used to defray expenses for furnishings needed in the ladies' lounge. The date of the club's meeting has been changed from the third Wednesday of the month to the fourth Monday to suit the convenience of the membership. Twenty-five members were present. Mrs. Victor Groshen is president and Mrs. R. G. McMurtry, secretary-treasurer.

All Saints Auxiliary Hold Business Meet

Mrs. Hilma Anderson and Mrs. James J. Farley were hostesses for the business meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of All Saints Episcopal Church Thursday afternoon at the Parish House. Plans were made for the Pancake Luncheon which will be held on Shrove Tuesday February 26. This is the final social affair of the Auxiliary before Lent. Fifteen members were present for Thursday's meeting.

DINNER PARTY ENJOYED SATURDAY EVENING

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Johnson entertained with a dinner party Saturday evening at their apartment in Arborvitae Cottage. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lowe, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Ogletree and Mrs. M. R. Wightman. Cards were enjoyed following the dinner.

After the reception the couple, in a well tin canned car with many appropriate signs fastened on it, left for a honeymoon trip to parts unknown, before they have to return to the Naval Base at San Diego, where Cork will report for duty.
