Annual Bracts Many

Over two hundred members and wives, many from a distance, were here Saturday for the annual Washington's Birthday parties at the Heppner B. P. O. Lodge. During the afternoon large class of candidates was held. At 5:30 p. m. a buffet dinner was served in the club room after which a floor show was given. In a departure from the usual custom, the show presented from the stage of Star Theater and was well received by a capacity crowd. The show consisted of two very accomplished jugglers, a team of comic dancers and a quartet of "cowboy" singers, whose ballad brought down the house. A children's group began the ages of thirteen and the star, being the youngest with a Sophie Tucker type personality. After the show, dancing continued until 2:00 a. m. in the ballroom.

Thursday afternoon, the Elks' were entertained at a card party at the American Legion hall, 5, Chase Street. Twenty-one sets of pinocle and ten tables of bridge were in play. For pinocle, Mrs. Russell O'Donnell led high score and Mrs. Clyde Johnson, second. In bridge, Grace Nickerson received and Mrs. E. Harvey Miller Portland received second. Prizes for the affair included Willard Blake, Mrs. Tom on, Mrs. Frank Connor, Mrs. J. Farley, Mrs. Jack VanKle, Mrs. Harry O'Donnell, Jr., Frank W. Turner and Mrs. El L. Bengel. Refreshments

Nancy Ferguson February Bride

In a candlelight ceremony, Sunday afternoon, February 24, at the family home on N. Main street, Miss Nancy Ferguson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene O. Ferguson, became the bride of William A. Zinter, son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Zinter of Ione. The single ring service was read by Rev. J. Palmer Sorlien of the Methodist Church.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a beige suit and corsage of talisman roses. Arrangements of stock, tulips, acacia and daffodils decorated the rooms.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held. After the bride and groom cut the first piece of wedding cake, Mrs. T. E. Messenger, Jr., sister of the groom continued with the serving.

Following the reception, the young couple departed on a brief wedding trip to Portland. The groom is associated with his father in a farming operation north of Ione. Mrs. Zinter will continue her studies at Heppner high school.

O. E. S. ENTERTAINED BY MEN OFFICERS

Tom Wells, James Hayes and Harold Beckett, men officers of Ruth Chapter No. 32 OES, were hosts for the social hour which followed the regular lodge session Friday evening in the Masonic Hall. Entertainment for the meeting was provided by the Harmony Club, the men's choral group.

were served preceding the play. Large baskets of flowers were used about the rooms. Door prizes were awarded to Mrs. Harold Beckett and Mrs. Ed Buschke.

TASTING THE TASTIEST

NEW YORK—Margaret Truman, daughter of President Harry S. Truman, samples a piece of the "Starlight-Double Delight Cake" after it won for Mrs. S. P. Weston (left), 39, of La Jolla, Calif., the $25,000 first prize in the Third National Bake-off at New York's Waldorf-Astoria Hotel. Between them stands Mrs. Philip Pillsbury, wife of the president of Pillsbury Mills, sponsor of the contest. Miss Truman announced Mrs. Weston as the "Cook-Of-The-Year," and handed her the first prize check at a luncheon in the hotel. Experts called Mrs. Weston's chocolate dessert a creation that is the newest thing in cake recipes in years.
