INDIANS PREFER STATE

A plan will be drafted to transfer the Klamath Indians from federal to state jurisdiction, an eight man committee decided this week while meeting with Governor Douglas McKay at the Capital. The governor said it would probably pave the way to complete freedom for other tribes in Oregon.
 Leaders of the group said it would be more satisfactory for the Indians to be put under state jurisdiction because they would only have to go to Salem to get adjustments, instead of going 3000 miles to Washington, D. C.
 Harvey Wright of Salem will head the special committee on plans and Senator Philip S. Hitchcock and Rep. Henry Semon of Klamath Falls will serve on a special legislative committee and will present the plan to the 1953 session.

87 Years Separate Sherman, U.P. Turbine

COMPARISON

Turbine	Sherman
1952 Completed 1865
84 feet Length 50 feet
278 tons Weight 57 tons
105,000 lbs. Tractive Power 11,000 lbs.
7,200 gals. Fuel Capacity 2 cords

The first word and the last word in Union Pacific motive power are shown in the above picture. A few comparative statistics are listed to the right of the General Sherman, tiny wood burner built in Paterson, N. J., and brought to Omaha in 1865, four years before the driving of the Golden Spike marked completion of the nation's first transcontinental railroad. The General Sherman was Union Pacific's first locomotive. In sharp contrast is the sleek gas turbine electric locomotive at the top, which is going into freight service this month between Green River, Wyo., and Ogden, Utah. The turbine is the first of this type of railroad motive power to be placed in service in America and the first of 13 such locomotives purchased by U. P. The turbine is approximately twice as efficient as a comparable diesel locomotive in terms of horsepower per pound of material and per foot of length. It was built at Erie, Pa., by General Electric.

WOULD BAN LIQUOR ADS

Seven county Granges have asked the Oregon Liquor Commission to ban all liquor advertising. Oregon's "Knox" liquor law gives the commission power to control, regulate or prohibit liquor advertising.
 The seven county Granges—Hood River, Wasco, Clackamas, Jackson, Linn, Washington and Columbia—based their request on the grounds that advertising of liquor promotes intemperance and crime and has a bad effect on youth.
 Liquor Administrator Bingham said he expects every county Grange in the state to ask for the ban on liquor ads. Commissioners declared their regulations on advertising are the most strict of any state.
 Bishop Hammamaker will put a bill before congress in March that will prohibit alcoholic advertising from radio and TV.
HIGHWAY BONDS APPROVED
 The same restraint committee that recently refused to permit the sale of $40 million of bonds to pay the state bonus covering World War II veterans this week approved the sale of an addition, at $15 million worth of Oregon State Highway bonds.
 The Western Voluntary Credit Restraint Committee that passed on the two bond issues, is composed of a group of bankers and investment brokers designated by the federal government to determine if state and local bond issues are inflationary.

 A second application to sell the veterans bonds recently was filed with the committee.

THE WEEK'S CANDIDATES

The odds are that Oregon will retain the unique distinction of having the only husband and wife legislative members in the nation. Senator Richard L. Neuberger and Representative Maurine B. Neuberger of Portland filed Thursday for reelection. Both are democrats and have a way of winning in republican precincts.
 Six other members of the present house or representatives (all top vote-getters), Henry Semon, (Dem.) Klamath; Joseph E. Harvey, (Rep.) Multnomah; Alva C. Goodrich, (Rep.) Deschutes; Ed. R. Cardwell (Rep.) Linn; Carroll Looey (Rep.) Malheur and Stanhope Pier (Rep.) Multnomah filed for reelection this week.
 Olga M. Wilson has filed for the unexpired 2-year term of the late Senator Manley J. Wilson who represented Clackamas, Columbia and Multnomah in the 1951 session.
 New faces in the legislative arena showed up when fillings were made for the house of representatives by George Lyman (Rep.) Yamhill; R. H. Windshire (Rep.) Yamhill; Claude E. Hall (Rep.) Lincoln; Earl A. Moore (Rep.) Hood River; R. T. McKenzie (Rep.) Coos and Curry; Jess W. Savage (Rep.) Linn and Ralph J. Brown (Rep.) Crook and Jefferson.

ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OPINIONS

The following interpretations of Oregon law were handed down this week by Attorney General George Neuner:

What gives Olympia constant purity?

Many years ago our founder discovered the subterranean wells at Tumwater which produce, now as then, a water of great purity and special brewing qualities . . . reason indeed why OLYMPIA is a beer of rare flavor and light, sparkling qualities.

J. C. Penney Manager To Attend Meeting

Jeff Carter, manager of the Heppner J. C. Penney company store will leave here March 2 to attend the company's Golden Jubilee convention being held in San Francisco on March 5, 6 and 7.
 "This year marks our 50th anniversary of serving the American people" Carter said, "and our convention has been built around that theme."

J. C. Penney, founder of the company and its board chairman will make the keynote speech at the meeting. Over 3000 Penney managers and their wives are expected to attend the various meetings around the country.
 Mrs. Carter will accompany her husband to the big city.

Mr. and Mrs. Verlin Matthews and her daughter, Kathy Rae Moyer, departed Tuesday for Boise, Idaho where they will spend a fortnight visiting relatives.

Another opinion given out by Neuner this week was that he would not be a candidate to succeed himself.
