4-H CLUB NEWS

Officers elected were Nina Griffin, president; Linda Heimbigner, vice president; Karen Lundell, secretary and news reporter; and Mary Emert and Kay Townsend, song leaders. There are fourteen members.

The club meets every two weeks at their leader home, Mrs. Roland Bergstrom. So far they have completed a needle case and a pin cushion.

They are learning such things as being a hostess and doing for others with the stuffed toys they will make. One of their activities includes a program which they will put on for the Ione P. T. A. late in March.

STEP IN STYLE SEWING CLUB
The Lexington Step In Style sewing club has been very busy since we started. We have been holding sewing meetings at the Lexington school house. We have been making skirts, blouses, peddle pushers and Rita Graves is making a formal.

Our leader, Dorris Graves, gave us some pamphlets on sewing that have helped a lot in our work at home.

In our meetings we have discussed different hemlines, and the dress and skirt styles that look best on us. This helped us a lot in choosing our patterns.

The next meeting will be held on Saturday, March 8th, in the study hall at the Lexington school house.

Banquet Given by Lexington Scouts

By Delpha Jones

The Lexington Boy Scouts under the leadership of Armin Whihlon and the Cub Scouts under the leadership of LaVerne Henderson gave their banquet in the I. O. O. F. dining room, Thursday night. The dinner was a potluck affair with the Mothers all assisting with the work. The tables were beautiful with yellow daffodils, and blue candles. The place cards were made by the boys and had the names of their parents on them, and the boy himself. The center table looked lovely adorned with a three-tiered cake made by Mrs. Henderson and decorated with a topping made of crepe paper, and two boys, one made to resemble a cub scout in their complete uniform, and one a boy scout in complete outfit.

After the dinner a program was greatly enjoyed, starting with the boy scouts and their leader, assisted by the assistant leader, Cecil Jones. First was the flag salute led by the toop, followed by the lighting of the 12 candles. Those receiving badges for tenderfoot rank were: Paul Breeding, Jerry Messenger, Hugo Leyva, and George Hermann; the other scouts Vern Nolan, Larry Henderson, Donald Hunt, and Mike Winters. The Cub Scouts were given awards by Carl Schwab, and those were: wolf, Jimmie Steagall, Bobby Davidson, bear, Carroll Messenger, bear, and Laddie Henderson a webelos. The parents were called up with the boys to receive their awards.

Those attending the banquet were: Mr. and Mrs. Ellwyen Peck, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Steagall, Mr. and Mrs. Truman Messenger and family, Mrs. M. V. Nolan, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Winters and family, Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Balsler, and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Gar Leyva, Mr. and Mrs. Armin Whihlon and family, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schwab and daughters.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Wetzel and family, Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Breeding and children Max and Joan, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Davidson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Henderson and family and Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Jones. Talks were heard by Mr. Balsler and Mr. Schwab, the opening prayer by Lewis Wetzel.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Hunt were Portland visitors over the weekend.

Miss Patricia Majeske, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Majeske, who is in nurses training in Portland, was visiting in Lexington over the weekend. She was taken back to her work Sunday by a brother and wife Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Majeske.
