Farm Bureau OKs Milk Control Plan

Farm Bureau supports the milk control law in principle. This recommendation was re-affirmed yesterday by the Oregon Farm Bureau Federation county dairy chairman at a special meeting held in Salem.

Purpose of the meeting was to clarify the Oregon Farm Bureau dairy recommendations passed at the November annual meeting and to clear up any misunderstanding of Farm Bureau dairy position.

O. F. B. F. dairy chairman, Edgar Grimes, Harrisburg, was instructed, however, to call another meeting of regional and county dairy chairmen to meet with members of the State Board of Agriculture and Milk Market Administrators. Purpose of the meeting will be to see if disunity that exists within the dairy industry can be corrected by means of arbitration.

Speakers at the meeting included Marshall Swearingen, State President and Gerald Lee, Director of the American Farm Bureau Federation dairy department.

Swearingen, at the conclusion of the meeting said "There can now be no question as to Farm Bureau full support of the Milk Control law in principle. Opportunity for changes in the administration of the law will make themselves evident and can be met as they develop, and Farm Bureau will cooperate with the Board of Agriculture toward efficient operation of the law".

Art Ireland, Forest Grove was appointed to head a special committee to study Oregon's "Filler" law as it relates to non-dairy products used as fillers in Dairy products.

The group unanimously questioned the stand of the American Farm Bureau Federation opposing Section 104 of the Defense Production Act. Section 104 to expire in June, gives authority to the Department of Agriculture to set import quotas on dairy products imported into the United States. The action will go to Farm Bureau Centers for their approval or disapproval.

County School News Notes

Mr. Grant left Thursday to attend the regional meeting of the American association of school administrators to be held in Los Angeles, one of the three held in the nation.

A number of prominent educators from Oregon will take part in the program including Henry Tetz, for Morrow county school superintendent. The meeting is one of the outstanding educational conferences of the year and will take up all parts of the field including rural education.

Grant will report on the conference at a rural school board meeting here on March 15.

Dr. and Mrs. James D. Palmer of The Dalles were weekend visitors in Heppner.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Scritsmier came up from Portland Friday to spend the weekend with relatives and attend the Elks annual. During their visit in Heppner they were houseguests of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Faye Prock.
