STITCH-IN-TIME CLUB

Our last meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Rose Francis with president Joann Brosnan calling the meeting to order. We showed our scarfs that we have made and sewed a button on a piece of material. Mrs. Charles Monagle showed us some movies and refreshments were served. Later some of us danced and did acrobatics.

Visitors were Mrs. Charles Monagle and Mrs. Marie Martin. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Jerry Brosnan. Francine Francis, reporter.

Veterans Property Tax Exemption Deadline April 1

Disabled veterans and war widows were warned today that April 1 is the last day on which they may apply for a $1500 property tax exemption provided by state law. Application is made to the county assessor in the county where the property is located.

The Oregon Department of Veterans Affairs said the special tax exemption on homes or personal property is available to the following persons:

1. Any war veteran with a 40 percent disability or more, as certified by the Veterans Administration or a branch of the armed forces. The veteran must obtain this statement from the Portland VA regional office, or from the branch of service from which he was retired, and submit it to the county assessor when he applies for the tax exemption.

2. The unmarried widow of a war veteran. She must submit proof of the husband's military service and copies of the marriage and death certificates.

3. Any union veteran of the Mexican, Civil or Indian wars.
4. Any war veteran who, lacking a disability rating from the VA or the armed forces, submits a certified statement from his physician and the county health officer that he is 40 percent disabled. The veteran in this category is not entitled to the exemption if his gross income in the last calendar year exceeded $2500. The applicant must also submit proof that the property is recorded in his name. All evidence supporting his claim must be filed before the April 1 deadline. The tax exemption applies to the person's homestead—that is, the property he owns and on which he resides—or to his personal property.
Mr. and Mrs. Bill Collins were in Portland over the weekend.
