Men Hosts For Rebekah Meeting

The Brothers of Sans Souci Rebekah Lodge were hosts for the social hour and program following the regular meeting Friday evening. Tom Allen was chairman with Jesse C. Payne, Emory Settles, R. G. McMurtry and Durward Tash assisting in arranging the program and refreshments. During the lodge session, three transfer candidates, Mrs. Flory Nys, Mrs. Josie Jones, and Mrs. Josephine Mahoney Baker, were presented and welcomed. A paper on the life and accomplishments of Schuyler Colfax, founder of the Order, was read by Mrs. Clara B. Gertson. Dick Scherzinger, representative of General Mills, and his trained chickens, "Henrietta" and "Elsie", did several interesting tricks by way of entertainment for the group after lodge. The chickens, of an ordinary breed chosen from a common flock of chickens, had been trained to do simple mathematical problems with the aid of numbers and a mechanical pointer placed on a small board. They also played the "shell" game and a card game with Pete McMurtry in which the hen came out winner. Mr. Scherzinger showed the film "Larro Research Farm" which told the story of the development of feeds for the various types of livestock. Initiation for five candidates will be held at the next meeting on April 4. Plans were made to hold a joint meeting with the Oddfellows on April 25 in observance of the anniversary of the founding of the Oddfellows Lodge.

Shower Given For Mrs. Rugg

Mrs. Robert Hoskins, Mrs. John Campbell, Mrs. Donald Bennett and Mrs. Donald Robinson were hostesses Friday afternoon for a stork shower at the Episcopal Parish House complimenting Mrs. George Rugg (Shirley Wilkinson). A huge baby basket draped in pink and blue with lace trim held the gifts, being filled several times. Following the enjoyment of the many gifts of all kinds and colors, Mrs. Lucy M. Peterson sang "A Modern American Lullaby" accompanied by Mrs. Elvon Lee Tull. Games were played with Mrs. Peterson and Mrs. Stephen Thompson receiving high scores. Pouring were Mrs. Richard Wilkinson and Miss Joan Hisler of Hood River. Bouquets of daffodils were used on the table and about the room.

Soroptimists Model Easter Bonnets

The Soroptimist Club met Thursday noon March 20 at O'Donnell's. The table decorations featured an Easter bonnet cake in honor of Pearl Devine's birthday. Claudien Wightman had charge of the program which was a style show of Easter bonnets. To the strains of "The Easter Parade", everyone present modeled a new spring hat. Mary Van Stevens told how Irving Berlin happened to write the words and the music for "The Easter Parade." Guests present were Lucy Peterson, Gertrude Applegate and Gretchen Penland.

Miss Joan Hisler who is teaching this year at Hood River was a weekend guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hisler of the Butter Creek area.

Guests for the day were Mrs. Anna Helny and her daughter, Mrs. Gene Furguson.

RESOLUTION OF RESPECT

To the Officers and Members San Souci Rebekah Lodge No. 33 WE THE COMMITTEE, assigned the duty of drafting a written expression of condolence on account of the passing of a Sister to the life beyond, report as follows:

WHEREAS, it is the plan of the Almighty that man shall finish his duties on this earth, and then depart to the unknown; so it is with the life and passing of our beloved Sister Hattie A. Wightman, a member of Sans Souci Rebekah Lodge No. 33 for many years. Her passing is deeply regretted by our lodge and many others of Heppner. Her beloved family will mourn her absence, but we would say to them that their loved one only sleeps awaiting their arrival when they too shall cross the silent river.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that we express our sympathy to the bereaved family and be it

RESOLVED that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the sister's family, one copy spread on the minutes of our lodge, and a copy sent to the Heppner Gazette Times.

Fraternally submitted,

 "I sometimes wonder, God, What thou must think of me. Since I so often put self first And give last place to thee."

I ask forgiveness, God,
 Help me walk today,
 Free from subtle selfishness

In true humility,
 We invite you to our services each Sunday. The Morning program is from 9:45 til noon. And the evening program from 6:45 to 8:30. Wednesday evenings we gather for prayer and Bible study. There is a place here for you too.
 We are sure something is wrong when we grow bolder with sin. So come to Church Sunday.
