Warrants Issued on the General

What gives Olympia rare flavor?

Centuries of brewing experience have shown that certain waters have a more solvent quality than others to extract rare and desirable flavors from the hops and grains, and impart them to the beer. Our subterranean water proves how this faultless brewing water produces an outstanding beer.

By Delpha Jones
Mr. and Mrs. Howard Crowell of Heppner, Mrs. Charles Breshears, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Lindsey and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Doherty, and Mrs. Wilbur Steagall of Lexington, attended the operetta given at the Vert Memorial school in Pendleton Sunday afternoon, by the music students of St. Joseph's academy. Also on the program was the all girls string ensemble from St. Mary's academy at Baker, Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Heiser and family who are employed on the highway construction crew are living in the Mervin Leonard apartment. Mr. and Mrs. Keithley and Mary Keithley were dinner guests at the W. H. Padberg home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Wetzel and family were Pendleton visitors Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Livingston of Spray, a sister of O. G. Breeding spent Saturday in Lexington at the Breeding home and Sunday they visited in Stanfield at the Bert and Carl Breeding homes.

The members of the Lexington Christian church choir are practicing on an Easter Cantata to be given April 11th on Friday at the Christian church. Those in the program are Mrs. Karl Miller, Phyllis Nolan, Mrs. T. E. Messenger Sr., Mrs. Don Campbell, aitos; Mrs. Gene Majeske, Mrs. Trina Parker, Janet Kendall, and Mrs. C. C. Jones, Patty McMillan and Shirley Hunt, sopranos, Nolan, Mr. Kendall and Bob Hagerud, with the director Mrs. Betty Hagerud.

The dance at the Lexington grange hall for the benefit of the Lexington school band was well attended. Supper was served later in the basement.

The Lexington Grange is having a party Saturday for its members and friends.

Earl Miller spent the weekend at Cecil Jones, from his work at Nolans.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill B. Marquardt are the proud parents of a 10 lb. son born Tuesday morning in the Pioneer Memorial hospital.

The Ne-top-pew Campfire girls held their regular meeting Monday afternoon at the home of their leader Mrs. C. C. Jones. Place cards were made for the Mother and Father banquet and invitations were written. The banquet will be April 10 in the I. O. O. F. dining room. At this time there will be a short program.

The Horizon Club Birds also held their meeting at the same time. They welcomed a new girl Janet Kendall recently arrived from Ontario. They also worked on things for the banquet.

Wednesday after the O-DA-KO group met at the home of their guardian Mrs. C. C. Jones. They worked on their notebooks, and welcomed a new member, Patsy McDonald. They are also planning their part of the program at the Mother-Father banquet.
