Spring Wedding Held At Keithley Home

At a four o'clock ceremony on Sunday afternoon at the Keithley home on West water street Miss Delores Keithley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Keithley, became the bride of Darrel McLachlan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn McLachlan, the single ring service being read by the Rev. J. Palmer Sorlien, pastor of the Methodist church, in the presence of the immediate families.

The bride given in marriage by her father was charming in a white taffeta afternoon frock, made with bouffant skirt, fitted bodice and short plaited sleeves. This was worn with a matching head dress in halo effect. She carried a bride's bouquet of pink rosebuds tied with wide pink ribbon.

The maid of honor, Miss JoAnne Keithley, sister of the bride, wore a navy blue suit with white accessories and a white carnation corsage.

Best man was William Bloodsworth.

Mrs. Keithley wore a navy blue frock and Mrs. McLachlan turquoise blue each with white rosebud corsage.

Following the ceremony a reception was held with the bride and groom cutting the first piece of the three tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bridal couple. Mrs. Archie Alderman, aunt of the bride, continued with the serving and Mrs. Clyde Pettyjohn, sister of the bride, poured.

Mrs. Mollie McLachlan, grandmother of the bridegroom, of Moro and Miss Leila McLachlan, sister of the bridegroom, of Spokane were the out of town guests.

For the most delicious noodles to serve with your most delicious stews, toss them, after cooking, of course, with melted vitaminized margarine and chopped fresh parsley.

What are little girls made of? This spring and summer we'd say flowers and frills, for fashions are completely feminine. Shoulders are soft, waists are nipped in, skirts are full over voluminous petticoats. White is used extensively as an accent for black and navy. And hats? They're wee things to show off abbreviated hair-dos.

To ripen green bananas quickly, simply leave them in a brown paper bag at room temperature. It's amazing how soon they'll be ready to eat.

A truly good sauce, well seasoned, is often the "making" of an economy dish. Easy Hollandaise is a glamour sauce for fish and eggs. Combine 3/4 cup real mayonnaise and 1/2 cup milk in top of double boiler, stirring constantly. Add 1/4 tsp. salt, 1 lbs. lemon juice and 1 tsp. grated lemon rind. Serve hot.

A meat loaf looks like company when you shape it in an oval and score like a half of ham. When baked, stud it with sliced, stuffed olives.

Bathroom and kitchen tiles will sparkle and stay bright a long time if cleaned thoroughly with glass wax. . . . Silver candlesticks will resist oxidation longer if you give them a good coating of colorless furniture wax. Buff to a high lustre.

TIP FOR SPRINGTIME—Where to store blankets safely through the summer is a problem every housewife faces in the spring. Stored in closets or portable wardrobes, bulky blankets take a lot of room, often fall prey to moths. Here's a good solution. Put cleaned blankets in a new galvanized rubbish can and keep it in the attic or basement. A paper seal between the lid and the top of the can keeps out moths and dust. Quality ware, with durable galvanized coating, is inexpensive and will last for many years as a moisture- and rodent-proof storage container.

Extension Unit Meets At Drake Home

NORAH'S

Shower Honors Recent Bride

Mrs. Lucy E. Rodgers, Mrs. Douglas Drake, Miss Nancy Adams and Miss Rita Graves were hostesses for a shower Monday evening at the Parish House of All Saints Episcopal church complimenting Mrs. William Zinter, Jr., (Nancy Ferguson) a bride of recent date. Assisting were Mrs. J. O. Turner, Mrs. Olive Huston, Mrs. Harold Cohn and Mrs. Floyd N. Adams.

An arrangement of forsythia, daffodils and pussywillows was used as a centerpiece for the lace covered tea table and the color scheme of yellow was accentuated by the use of bouquets of the same flowers and tall yellow tapers on the fireplace and elsewhere in the room. Pouring were Mrs. Eugene Ferguson and Mrs. William Zinter, Sr. of Ione.

A program was presented with Miss Eleanor Rice playing two piano solos and Mrs. Lucy M. Peterson singing two numbers, "Because of You" and "The Little White Cloud That Cried", accompanied by Miss Nancy Adams. Sixty guests were present for the Occasion.
