AN EASTER TREAT

FLOWERS bursting into bloom and all Nature as fresh and new as your spring bonnet. Easter time brings an active urge for doing new things and catching up with social activities. School vacations make it possible for the young hostess to plan an Easter party or two. Chicks and bunnies, of course, are the main decorations. Attractive baskets of crepe paper in pastel shades, to hold colored eggs or jelly beans, can be made at small cost and add much to the decorative scheme.

Plain cake, iced in a pastel shade, and a beverage might be enough to serve. The younger set is particular about its drinks, so be sure that your beverage is properly chilled and of delicious flavor. Pale dry ginger ale is a popular drink and it is especially liked with a scoop of ice cream added. Here is a party drink to which blended fruit juices give fine flavor and ginger ale adds zest and sparkle.

Three-Fruit Flip

- 1 12-oz. package quick frozen raspberries
- 1/2 cup unsweetened grapefruit juice
- 1/2 cup apricot nectar
- Pale dry ginger ale

Put raspberries through food mill or sieve. Add chilled grapefruit juice and apricot nectar; mix well. Divide among 6 tall glasses. Fill glasses with ice cold pale dry ginger ale. Stir gently to mix.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Might As Well "Get In Key"

Last Tuesday Judge Cunningham wanted to go fishing. "Why aren't you working?" I asked.

Judge explained how his wife had gone on a trip, taken his keys by mistake—and now he couldn't get in the office. So we went fishing.

Next day, he wanted me to go again. I was surprised those keys hadn't shown up yet. "The little woman phoned to say she mailed them," the Judge explained.

"They're now in the office, under the mail slot. I'd get 'em if I could just open that door." He grinned and picked up his fishing rod.

"Great little woman, the wife. You can always count on her. Let's go!"

From where I sit, we can use tolerance like the Judge shows for his wife's absent-mindedness...

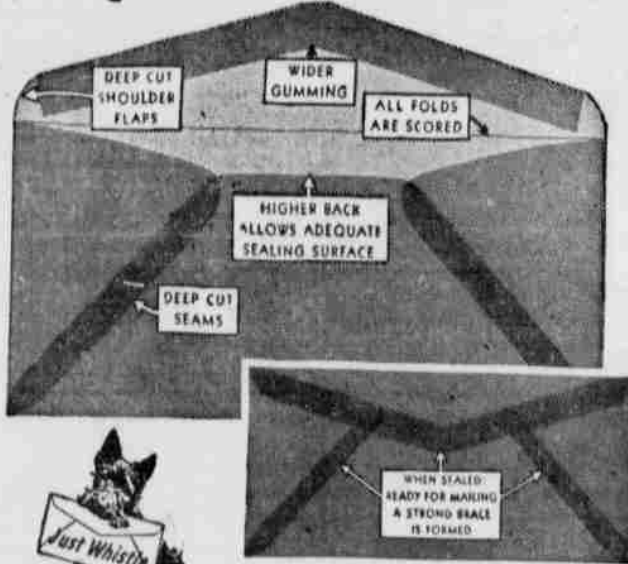

and she shows for his habit of lighting out for the fishing hole at every opportunity. He can't see why she likes tea, and she doesn't share his taste for a glass of beer.

But they get along fine! Learning to respect other people's ways will "open the door" to happier living.
